

THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION

CONGRESS WEARY FROM MONTHS OF BITTER FIGHTING, PASSES PENSION BILL AND QUILTS

Acting Mayor Couch Liberates 258 Prisoners

BLANKET PARDON CLEARS STOCKADE AND DAIRY FARM

Indicted Alderman Says
He May Never Again Be Able to Benefit So Many People.

JUDGE HOLLOWAY OPPOSES ACTION

Court Records Indicate
Acting Mayor May Have Exceeded Authority in Some Cases.

J. Allen Couch, indicted alderman from the fifth ward and in Mayor Ragsdale's absence to welcome Bobby Jones back to America acting as mayor, Thursday ordered the release of 258 prisoners serving sentences in the stockade and at the McDonough road dairy farm for violation of city ordinances.

Darktown Decatur rejoiced and launched a pre-Fourth of July celebration when news reached it that, under the Couch order extending clemency, 258 negroes and 55 white women would be released. Twenty-three white women and 55 white men received their freedom under the blanket pardon.

There were scenes of rejoicing at the Dairy farm where the women, black and white, and the 55 white men were in confinement for offenses as serious as driving cars while intoxicated and reckless driving. Almost en masse, the liberated miscreants started a pedestrian trek to the city, singing and shouting between appeals for free transportation.

Couch's Statement.

Although the official order was terse and without comment as to the motive which actuated him, Mayor Pro Tem Couch declared he believed that by giving the offenders their freedom on the Fourth of July, Independence Day, they will make better citizens.

"If the people of Atlanta will receive those who were incarcerated in a Christian spirit, I believe many of them will have learned their lesson," he said. "If even one of them reforms as the result of this action, I will feel that the effort was not in vain."

Acting on Couch's order, Tom C. Morris, superintendent of prisons, late Thursday began turning the prisoners out, and by midnight the cells were cleared.

Text of Couch's letter follows: "Mr. T. C. Morris, Superintendent of Prisons, Atlanta, Georgia: "I have upon this date issued executive clemency in the cases of the city of Atlanta versus the following named persons enumerated in attached communication at once."

"Very truly,
(Signed) "J. ALLEN COUCH,
"Mayor Pro Tem."

Auto Death Verdict Lost by Mrs. Allen

A $15,000 verdict was returned in federal court Thursday against Mrs. Dona Allen, of Buford, in a suit by the heirs of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Smith, of Spartanburg, S. C., who were killed in an automobile accident near Lawrenceville, Ga., last year.

The petition asked $75,000 damages, averring that Mr. Smith earned $8,000 a year as superintendent in a cotton mill and had a normal expectation of life of 20 years. The petition averred that the Smiths' car was traveling along the Dixie highway and was struck by Mrs. Allen's car, which came from a side road.

Plaintiffs were C. O. Smith, Daisy Pearl Smith, Albert Smith and Carey Smith. The last two named were minors.

The defendant immediately after the verdict filed a motion for a new trial, which was set for hearing July 31.

3-Year-Old Girl Drowns in Sewer

BETTY DONALDSON.

DR. W. A. SUTTON HEADS EDUCATORS

Atlanta Superintendent Made President of National Association.

Election of Dr. Willis A. Sutton, superintendent of the Atlanta city schools, as president of the National Education Association at Thursday's session of that organization in Columbus, Ohio, brought to Atlanta the honor of having one of its distinguished public figures chosen to head the outstanding body of educators in America.

Fitted against Joseph Rosier, president of the Fairmont State Normal school in West Virginia, and with the southern educators voting solidly for the Atlanta candidate, Dr. Sutton received 604 of the convention's 1,052 votes.

Dr. Sutton will be inaugurated at the final session of the convention which will be held at Ohio stadium today. The gavel and official habiliments of the presidency of the group of school leaders will be turned over to him by Miss E. Ruth Pyrtle, of Lincoln, Nebraska, retiring president who visited Atlanta early this year.

Miss Pyrtle automatically becomes first vice president.

Not only is Dr. Sutton widely known as an educator but his contributions to state and civic enterprises have distinguished him as well. In 1929 he was selected as state chairman to organize the celebration of Georgia's 200th birthday in 1933.

He is an ardent disciple of that school of philosophy which holds that people are more important than things and that more time and money should be appropriated to improving their lot, especially in the matter of providing schools for their children. A record he likes to cite, in public addresses, is that the state has a complete history of the transfers of title to land from the time General Oglethorpe landed up to now but that neither the city nor the state instituting vital statistics to record births until 1920.

Dr. Sutton is native of Danburg, Ga. After a preliminary education he graduated from Emory college, now Emory University, with a Ph. D. degree in 1903 and an LL. B. in 1904. He took a post-graduate work at Vanderbilt University and Columbia University. Oglethorpe honored him with A. D. Ped. in 1923.

Entering his teaching career as principal of the Fredonia, Ala., high school, he served there three years and became pastor of the Methodist church in Ashland, Ala. After two years in the ministry, he resumed teaching as principal of the Clay High school in Ashland, remaining at that post until 1912 when he became president of the Northwest Alabama Agricultural college. After a year there he came to Atlanta as professor of English in the Tech high school, becoming head of the department in 1915 and in 1917 being elevated to principal. He resigned as Tech principal in 1921 to become head of Atlanta.

Continued on Page 6, Column 4.

Betty Donaldson Falls Through Manhole in Lot in Rear of Her Aunt's Home.

Grim tragedy again struck the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Donaldson, 1024 Sells avenue, when their pretty 3-year-old daughter, Betty, died shortly before 7 o'clock Thursday night after having been rescued from a sewer line at 67 Ormond street, S. E., into which she had fallen. Efforts to revive her by applying a pulmotor failed.

The little girl's mother was ill at her home, having been discharged from Grady hospital only Wednesday, and an aunt, Mrs. Jack Langdon, at whose home Betty had been staying while her mother was in the hospital, and in the rear of whose home the child fell through a manhole opening into eight inches of water, was prostrated.

Child Disappears.

Mrs. Langdon, upon leaving her work at the police station, where she is stenographer for Chief of Police James L. Beavers, Thursday afternoon, went to the Donaldson home to see how Mrs. Donaldson was and invited Betty home with her. While Mrs. Langdon was attending to some work about the house, Betty strolled out in the back yard to play. When she did not return in a few minutes, Mrs. Langdon instituted a search for the missing child. Betty's favorite spot had been searched and no trace could be found of the child.

It was Mrs. J. N. Samples, a neighbor living across the street at 68 Ormond street, S. E., attracted by Mrs. Langdon's calls who joined in the search and finally located the body. A passer-by, L. F. Beall, of 74 Auburn street, responded to Mrs. Langdon's cry also and pulled Betty out of the hole, about three feet underground. An ambulance was summoned from Harry G. Poole and Betty was rushed to the Central Fire station where firemen fought for an hour in a vain attempt to resuscitate the child.

Once, about half an hour after Betty had reached the fire station, firemen though they detected a faint gasp and they redoubled efforts in the hopes that the little girl's life might be brought back from a watery death.

Lost Another Child.

It was a particularly sad loss for the Donaldsons because Betty, a second child, had compensated as well as another child could for the loss, two years ago, of a little boy, Louis, Jr., who died from an attack of diphtheria when just 3 years old.

It was the request of members of the family that Mrs. Donaldson, who was not told of the new tragedy in their home until Betty died at fire headquarters, that she be told of her loss by Rev. William H. Albert, pastor of the Western Heights Baptist church.

Children who had been playing in the yard of the Langdon home, previous to Betty's visit there Thursday afternoon are thought to have lifted the lid off the manhole and Betty's child-like inquisitiveness is believed to have caused her to peep in the hole, lose her balance and fall.

Funeral arrangements had not been completed Thursday night.

July 4th Brew Hits Detectives

A case of home brew, neatly wrapped and—probably—planned to quench a Fourth of July thirst was confiscated by Atlanta Detectives Thursday afternoon.

Roy Bazemore, 36, of 111 Fair street, in whose possession the synthetic reminder of pretzels was found, drove his automobile head on into one in which Detectives Satterfield and Barrett were riding on Hardie street near Whiteford avenue. Bazemore was placed under a $200 bond to answer charges of violating the city prohibition law, speeding and reckless driving.

Georgia Shipments Top Peach Movement

With the exception of 233 cars, Georgia has shipped all of the peaches which have moved in the United States this year, it was revealed Thursday in figures released by the state bureau of markets.

The entire United States through Wednesday had shipped a total of 2,693 cars, of which Georgia growers furnished 2,460. California and two Carolinas are the only states shipping within the past two or three days, it was said.

On July 2 the total movement was 126 cars, Georgia shipping 122 of the number. On July 1, 148 cars were shipped, of which Georgia contributed 143. Of 188 cars which moved on June 30, Georgia shipped 180.

HUNTER BROTHERS ARE STILL ALOFT AFTER 535 HOURS

Engine Throws Oil Over Landscape But Boys Are Ready To Stay Up Two More Weeks.

CHICAGO, July 4.—(UN.)—The endurance plane City of Chicago sprayed the countryside with oil today while John and Kenneth Hunter battled to stay in the air until after the Fourth of July.

After 535 hours, more than three weeks, of roaring around Sky Harbor airport the engine was spitting oil at 12:40 a. m., C. D. T. It lathered over the blue and orange wings of the second-hand monoplane, drenched the cabin windows and dripped on the ground below.

New offers of money flowed into the brothers. Vaudeville engagements, movie stardom and fabulous sums for testimonials were offered them. The $100-an-hour reward paid by an oil company for every hour they stayed in the air above the old 420-hour record stopped after they had obtained $10,000.

"We are getting used to life in the air now," said John in a radio talk. "I don't know when we'll come down. It's up to the motor. 'Beams' and I are good for another two weeks."

Plans and announcements cluttered the atmosphere, but the principal effort seemed to be keeping the plane flying during the holidays, both on account of the profits and because the brothers were afraid to land tomorrow.

Sky Harbor airport, far on the outskirts of Chicago, is bankrupt. Its field practically is unguarded. Its police consists of two men. Tremendous crowds expected today will swarm over the field. Authorities will be powerless to stop them. If the plane comes down, said officials connected with the flight, death and injury of scores is almost a certainty.

Rotating at an average speed of 1,600 revolutions per minute, the monoplane's propeller had twirled about 50,830,000 times in the 530 hours elapsed at 5:40 p. m. (c. s. t.) today. The tip of the eight-foot blade had travelled about 240,000 miles, the distance of the moon from the earth.

Students of mathematics on their holiday tomorrow might check these figures.

Each piston in the motor, chugging up and down 5 1/2 inches, has moved some 8,835 miles in its narrow confines and the nine pistons have covered 79,515 miles.

PEACE IS TALKED AT LEGION MEET

W. A. Sirmon Is Principal Speaker as Convention Opens in Gainesville.

GAINESVILLE, Ga., July 3.—(AP) The men who really know war talked mostly peace as the annual convention of the Georgia department of the American Legion got under way here Wednesday.

The speeches contained firm and proud notes, but were tempered with pleas for peace.

There was some hilarity and much good fellowship—it couldn't be otherwise with the hundreds who "soldiered" together—but the men who have grown middle-aged 12 years after their great adventure generally preferred to talk of the future and what it holds instead of the past and its horrors.

W. A. Sirmon, of Atlanta, department adjutant, erased the glamor and heroics from war and said that if profits were taken from wars there would be less agitation for conflicts. For every two American soldiers killed in the World War, he said, one millionaire was made in this country by war profits.

To the women who didn't rear their boys to be soldiers, Mrs. James Maddox, of Rome, president of the Georgia auxiliary, had a word of rebuke.

"Our answer to those women," she said, "is that we are rearing our children with the idea that if they accept protection from our flag they must defend it from dishonor."

Her speech was made at a flag-raising ceremony which opened the convention.

The veterans got down to business early after registration. It was estimated that approximately 5,000 members of the Legion and auxiliary were present.

Addresses of welcome were delivered by Edgar Dunlap, commander of the Decatur county, has been selected.

Continued on Page 4, Column 4.

Atlantans Plan Diversified Programs For Celebration of Independence Day

Photo by Kenneth Rogers, Constitution Staff Photographer.
Betty Regenstein and Victor Hugo Sewell are ready for the biggest Fourth of July in Atlanta.

STATE CANDIDATES PLAN BUSY FOURTH

Political Stumps All Over Georgia To Be Well Occupied Today.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Words and phrases carefully arranged and polished, Georgia's numerous candidates are ready to lend their aid to the proper celebration of the Fourth of July throughout the state.

For several of them, including John M. Slaton, candidate for the United States senatorship against Senator W. J. Harris, and John H. Holder and George H. Carswell, candidates for governor, the day marks their initial addresses of the campaign.

Others, including James A. Perry, Richard B. Russell, Jr., and Ed Rivers, also candidates for governor, are to continue speaking efforts started several weeks ago.

Mr. Slaton is to speak at Bainbridge. Mr. Carswell will share the platform with Mr. Slaton. John H. Holder, who formerly was state highway chairman, selected Homer, a small town in Banks county, for his opening address. Down in the state was Ed Rivers, of Lakeland, and Russell, of Winder, both speaking at a political rally at Fitzgerald.

James A. Perry speaks at Madison.

Harris Stays at Capital.

Senator Harris, who was scheduled to speak at Neal's Gap today, in a message to The Constitution Thursday night from Washington stated that he would be unable to reach Georgia in time to deliver his address due to a delayed vote on the veterans' bill.

A wrangle in the senate late Thursday afternoon, the senator wined, held up the vote on the legislation for the veterans' benefit. He had his grip packed, his transportation and reservation made for Gainesville, from where he had planned to join the American Legion pilgrimage to Blood mountain at Neal's Gap when the vote was put off until too late for him to catch the last available train, he telegraphed.

Senator Harris said that his paramount duty was to remain in the senate and vote for the bill and therefore he could not speak as announced, but that his brother, General E. C. Harris, would be present and read the speech at the scheduled time for the senator.

Great preparations have been made at Bainbridge for the advent of Mr. Slaton and Secretary of State Carswell. All stores in the town will close, and dispatches indicate that the streets were decorated from curb to curb. Even the buildings came in for their share of the "red, white and blue," characteristic of the Fourth.

E. H. Griffin, representative from Decatur county, has been selected.

Continued on Page 4, Column 7.

Conventional Picnics, Ball Games and Fireworks Still Hold Much Favor.

BY W. O. KEY, JR.

America's greatest holiday—a day that transcends all others in evoking the spirit of nationalism—was ushered into Atlanta at dawn with the desultory booming of salutes to the 15th anniversary of the second greatest challenge to the divine right of kings the earth had ever known.

Today, a century and a half afterward, in a nation which has held fast to the tenets of 1776 as exemplified by the spirit of Jefferson and those other signers of the Declaration of Independence, Atlantans awoke, prepared to contribute their bit to observing the day in a manner symbolic of the liberty which was gained through that noted document.

While there was an official usance against the indiscriminate or dangerous use of pyrotechnics, the popping of fireworks, both by Chief of Police James L. Beavers and Fire Chief John Terrell.

Rules on Fireworks.

No large, dangerous fireworks will be allowed anywhere, the police had ruled; and all smaller brands must be set off within the grounds of the person firing them.

Chief Terrell, conscious of the danger to life and limb of children, urged extreme care in the use of pyrotechnics. "More children die from fire," he warns, "than from any other kind of accidental injury. Fireworks, torpedoes and all other dangerous variety tag sales, and to place powers of sale in the sheriff's hands."

The executive committee let the contract for publishing the peace officers' quarterly to H. T. Barfield, of Atlanta. The next convention will be held in June of next year at Macon.

Chief Ben T. Watkins, of Macon, is president; H. G. Bradley, of Atlanta, is secretary, and Sheriff Lowry is chairman of the executive committee.

State Finger Print Bureau Is Proposed

Legislative action looking to establishment of a state finger print bureau will be favored by the Georgia State Sheriffs and Peace Officers association, the executive committee decided Thursday at a meeting in the office of Sheriff James L. Lowry.

Other legislation to be sought by the association includes a bill to give a 20 per cent penalty to the sheriffs after February 1 on delinquent automobile tag sales, and to place powers of sale in the sheriff's hands.

Continued on Page 4, Column 6.

NEW GRAFT BILLS RETURNED BY JURY

Bribery Charged Against Alderman Dobbs, Councilman Ozburn and York

Returning indictments against Alderman W. Guy Dobbs, Councilman J. T. Ozburn and former Councilman Harry York for bribery and being interested in a city contract, and offering presents in which continuance of the present investigation into municipal corruption and at a later date an inquiry into the affairs of the county commission are urged, the May-June term grand jury Thursday afternoon was discharged by Judge Virgil B. Moore.

Bench warrants were immediately issued for Dobbs, Ozburn and York. Solicitor-General John A. Boykin fixed their bonds at $1,000 which the three are expected to post today with Sheriff James L. Lowry.

The grand jury, in its report on surveys of county affairs, strongly condemned several members of the board of commissioners for obtaining tracts of land in subdivisions for "$10 and other valuable consideration" and then proceeding to improve the property locations by the payment of bonds and other county work and recommended that "some future grand jury push this investigation to a conclusion in order that the victims of unjust criticisms may be relieved of it and the public be notified of any irregularities, should they exist."

In connection with the municipal investigation the grand jury warmly praised the preceding grand juries and the solicitor-general's office for the work already done and recommended varying on of the inquiry "until we rid our city of all dishonest officials."

Sweepers Deal.

The indictments returned against Dobbs, Ozburn and York all grow out of the same transaction, the purchase by the city of two Elgin motor sweepers, the true bills alleging that Alderman Dobbs received $200, Councilman Ozburn $800 and former Councilman York $200 for getting the purchase order through council. The sweepers cost $6,681.50 each.

Howard Manning, Atlanta representative of the Elgin Company, is listed as the chief witness against the three men. The indictments name him as the man who "paid off" the three city officials.

In its presentments the grand jury treated the municipal graft situation and the proposed inquiry into the activities of the county commissioners as follows: "The grand jurors for the past three terms have worked diligently under the direction of our able solicitor, and brought to light a system of graft by certain city officials which has cast a blot on our fair city and will take years to overcome."

"Several indictments were returned, and of those coming to trial conviction."

Continued on Page 6, Column 1.

HOOVER TRIUMPHS IN FINAL BALLOT ON PENSION BILL

Senate Adjourns After Session of Snarling, Vitriolic Attacks on Pol- icy of Administration.

LOSES LAST FIGHT TO LOWER HOUSE

President Will Call Up- per Chamber Into Extra Session Monday To Ac- cept or Reject Treaty.

BY FRANCIS M. STEPHENSON.
WASHINGTON, July 3.—(AP)—Congress adjourned tonight in the fighting, snarling mood that has characterized the almost 18 months of continuous session since the advent of the Hoover administration.

It ended at 10:37 p. m., with President Hoover just outside the senate chamber in the presidential room to which he came shortly before 10 p. m. to sign the last of the appropriation measures. He signed the veterans' pension bill and the second deficiency measure. He waited for some time while Senator Norris, republican, Nebraska, flayed the Hoover farm relief and tariff policies, keystones of the administration's legislative accomplishments for the session, before the bill could be passed.

Senate Returns Monday.

Not until the resolution of adjournment which was adopted earlier in the night by the house had finally been approved by the quarrelsome senate was there a faint assurance that the close of the session which began last December was at hand.

President Hoover will immediately call the upper chamber into session on next Monday to consider ratification of the London naval agreement. While plenty of votes to assure ratification are in sight, the bill is denounced by Mr. Hoover and overwhelmingly voted by the house. The roll call was 48 to 14 for the measure in the senate.

Scores of house members circled the rear of the senate chamber awaiting the close of the long debate on the veterans' pension bill, and, indeed, repeated attacks upon their willingness to answer administration demands.

Sharp Words Fly.

Sharp words were flung out as the weary legislators debated the problems that crowded upon the closing hour of the session.

Senator Watson, of Indiana, the republican leader, who has found his party majority nullified time and again by a combination of democrats.

Continued on Page 4, Column 7.

The Weather GENERALLY FAIR.

WASHINGTON—Forecast:
Georgia—Generally fair Friday and Saturday.

Weather forecast for all cotton states may be found on market pages.

Local Weather Report.

Highest temperature	87
Lowest temperature	66
Mean temperature	74
Normal temperature	78
Rainfall in past 12 hours, inches	.00
Deficiency since last of month, .043
Deficiency since Jan. 1, inches, 8.24
Total rainfall, since January 1, 20.05

7 a.m. N'n. 7 p.m.

Dry bulb 70 82 84

Wet bulb 60 57 61

Relative humidity . . . 57 17 25

Reports of Weather Bureau Stations.

STATIONS	Temp.	RAIN
AND STATE OF WEATHER	7 p.m.	1 p.m.
ATLANTA, clear	84	87
Augusta, clear	84	86
Birmingham, clear	80	80
Boston, cloudy	66	72
Buffalo, pt. cldy.	68	68
Charleston, pt. cldy.	80	80
Chicago, clear	66	72
Cincinnati, clear	88	94
Des Moines, cloudy	78	82
Galveston, clear	82	86
Hatfield, cloudy	78	84
Harlem, clear	82	86
Jacksonville, cloudy	78	84
Kansas City, cloudy	84	86
Memphis, clear	86	86
Miami, cloudy	82	88
Mobile, clear	82	86
Montgomery, clear	86	94
New Orleans, pt. cldy.	84	82
New York, cloudy	64	78
North Platte, cloudy	88	94
Oklahoma City, clear	80	84
Phoenix, clear	80	108
Pittsburgh, clear	68	74
Portland, Me., clear	62	68
San Francisco, clear	64	68
St. Louis, cloudy	80	84
Salt Lake City, clear	82	92
Savannah, cloudy	78	82
Tampa, pt. cldy.	82	86
Toledo, clear	68	78
Washington, clear	82	86

C. F. VAN HERNIMAN,
Meteorologist, Weather Bureau.

Fulton County Board Rapped For Extravagance by Jury

Excessive Salaries to Employees Charged in Presentments—Civil Service Urged.

Sharply criticizing the county commission for the "high salaries of employees" and various "excessive expenditures," the grand jury in its presentments submitted Thursday to Judge Virlyn B. Moore recommended that all employees of the county be placed on civil service, "thereby eliminating the corrupt practice of employees contributing to campaign funds."

The grand jury also recommended that the salaries of employees of the county be reduced. Pointing out that the salaries "consume 50 per cent of the county's revenue," the grand jury asked that the reductions be made so that the salaries "correspond with salaries paid by other large business houses and corporations, commensurate with the duties performed."

The presentments also include a recommendation that the budget system of operation be adopted next year, which "will be strictly adhered to and a steady reduction in the county debt be brought about."

In making its reports on various county institutions and governmental divisions, the grand jury said it found all departments in good condition save that the county jail is overcrowded and some sections of it in bad need of repair.

For the most part the presentments discussed the county's financial situation and included a series of recommendations each of which tends to reduce expenditures, which the grand jury found are exceeding the county's income, thereby forcing the commissioners to borrow funds to meet current expenses.

The grand jury also discussed the present municipal graft inquiry and praised its results, in addition to recommending that at some later date a full probe of the operations of the county commission be made.

In discussing matters not pertaining to graft, the grand jury said the following:

FINANCES.
"We reviewed the auditor's reports for 1928 and 1929 which are on file with the county commissioners, and compared same with estimates for the year 1930, prepared by Reapes and Reapes, county auditors."

On May 31, 1930, the current liabilities were as follows:
Notes payable for borrowed money $2,500,000.00
Accounts payable 281,875.00
Other items 22,811.41
Total current liabilities 2,804,686.41
Current assets on May 31, 1930 $85,168.10

Net liability $2,041,518.31
"County warrants amounting approximately $150,000 will accrue in 1930, which will be carried over and paid in 1931."
"Interest paid on notes and warrants for 1930 will exceed $120,000. The audit reports clearly indicate that Fulton county is spending more money annually than it receives from taxes, fees, etc., and is borrowing the necessary funds from banks and brokers to pay the current pay rolls and interest."

"When the county borrows more than $2,000,000 in the early part of each year which is payable out of the taxes, which are usually collected in the following December and January, the result is that as if the taxes were paid in advance, as of March 1 of each year, and any reduction in borrowed money also affects the saving of the interest, which amounts to more than $120,000 as stated above."

BORROWING TO LIMIT.
"In 1928 Fulton county obtained the right to borrow money, and is now borrowing the full amount it is permitted to borrow under the law."

"Our investigation clearly indicates the county commissioners are approving expenditures beyond the ability of the county to pay out of current income."

The September, 1929, grand jury suggested a more economical operation of county affairs, but we find no indication of any change. The enormous expenditures averaging $1,900,000 per year in 1928, 1929 and 1930.

W. O. Brown, custodian, was found to be in the building in the case. It is recommended that a report be made to the county treasurer each year, showing this comparison.

It is also recommended that the tax assessors should check automobile tax returns against the state automobile license record.

It was noted that the room occupied by the tax receiver is very limited and crowded. It is recommended that more room be provided for the tax receiver, certainly to be available when tax returns are being made. In this connection, it is believed that some additional space could be secured from the adjacent office of the clerk of superior court, without handicapping that office.

Clark of the Superior Court.
"The records in the office of the clerk of superior court were found to be in good shape, particularly so the permanent records in the basement. There were attendants in charge of these rooms, who had the rooms in good order, the records in good shape, and was periodically look after the repairs to the record book."

It was felt that there was a fire hazard present in most of the offices where the records are kept. In addition to the fire insurance, it is recommended that carbon dioxide fire extinguishers of the proper number and proper type be installed in the first floor and basement offices of the office of the clerk of superior court.

"Carelessly thrown matches or cigarettes would start a fire in any of these offices and would destroy records, that could not be replaced."
"The records in the sheriff's office were examined and found to be kept in good shape and appeared to be complete."

"Reviewed" by the grand jury that copies of these presentments be furnished to the Atlanta daily papers, and to the county daily report, with the request that:

ROADS AND BRIDGES.
"Our committee made a thorough inspection of a large number of bridges in the county and went over a large number of roads and have the following recommendations to make:

"The bridges crossing Chattahoochee river seem to be in good condition, and our attention was called to a coal tar preparation that covers the flooring of Mason-Turner bridge. This material provides a smooth surface that helps to eliminate vibration and noise and should add life to our steel bridges."

"The police department of the county is rendering assistance to the construction department in reporting defects in bridges, thereby obtaining immediate and necessary repairs."

"During the last three years the county has reduced their wooden bridges from 26 to six. All of the new bridges being of concrete construction."

"Our committee calls special attention to the dangerous condition of three bridges in Fulton county and the records will show that former grand juries have recommended some immediate action on these bridges as follows:

"A bridge crossing the A. B. & C. Railroad on the Fairburn road.
"A bridge crossing the Seaboard Air Line Railroad and Moore's Mill road at the crossing of this bridge is 30 feet wide and the width of the bridge only 12 feet."

"A bridge crossing the Southern Railroad at Marietta street, opposite the Swift fertilizer works. At the east end of this bridge is a high hill and sharp curve that should be protected, either by wire fence, or some other method to prevent traffic from going over the embankment. An accident of this kind occurred recently."

"Our body urges the county commission to take some action on these three bridges as early as possible."

"We found that repair work done on the Atlanta or Gordon road which had been under for travel had been done with a preparation which we understand is a coal tar mixture and was laid over the old paving about two inches thick, and this new paving, we understand has proven to be durable as well as economical around other cities. This pavement is one of the smoothest in Fulton county and we suggest the public works department check the road and wearing qualities of this new paving."

"It was brought to the attention of our committee that a certain street in Hapeville, 50 feet wide and 1,600 feet long, leading to the new Myrtle Street school, was donated to the county by J. L. Sims of Hapeville, and a contribution by Mr. Sims of $600 was made for the laying of sewer and water mains on this street. Our committee believes that if this street was paved it will serve the interest of the majority of the community of Hapeville, and recommend that this be done as soon as the financial condition of the county will warrant same."

County Schools.
"As the March term of the grand jury made an examination of the buildings and grounds of the county schools, it was not deemed necessary on account of other pressing matters, to again go on an inspection tour. However, we have inspected the office and records of Superintendent Jerry Wells, and find many interesting facts. At present, the county is engaged in reconstructing the Hammond and Ben Hill schools, which will be ready for use by September. Reconstruction of the school building at Bolton has been passed up, but work will not begin until next year. This is done in order not to exceed appropriations for this class of work for 1930."

"While on the subject of construction, it is interesting to note that during the last five years 90 per cent of the county schools have been rebuilt out of general appropriations and without bond issue of any kind."

"The county has 27 white schools, 2 high schools and 19 negro schools. The approximate value of school buildings is $1,222,000; land, $844,000; equipment, $100,000. The average cost per pupil is as follows: High school, $92.00; white elementary, $44.80; colored elementary, $18.42, or a general average of $47.02 per pupil. Mr. Wells has been working the schools on a tight budget, sometimes even not paying salaries, and in all instances stays within his budget, sometimes even not paying salaries, and in all instances stays within his budget, sometimes even not paying salaries."

"The county school superintendent's office force consists of only three people, Mr. Wells, a stenographer and a file clerk. There are only three school superintendents, two white and one colored."

"All in all, the county schools seem to be in excellent condition and economically administered."

Justices of the Peace Dockets.
"The dockets of the Fulton county justices of the peace, with one or two exceptions where the justices are on vacation or out of the county, were examined with one exception, they were in satisfactory shape. One docket was incomplete through carelessness in keeping it, which fact was called to the attention of the justice of the peace, who stated that he would be more careful in the future."

"It was also found that there were several names listed on the list of justices of the peace in the office of the clerk of superior court, where the office was vacant. This information was furnished the ordinary, so that the matter could be checked up and records corrected."

Courthouse Records.
"A check has been made of the courthouse records and the condition is shown and recommendations made herein:

Ordinary's Office.
"The records as a whole seemed to be complete and were well kept and seemed to be up to date. It was noticed that some permanent and vital records were subject to destruction by fire, and it is recommended that fire-proof vaults or safes be provided of sufficient size to safely store the permanent records of this office. The record docket of administrators seemed unnecessary, as the information can be secured, if needed, from other records, and it is recommended that the law calling for this record be repealed."

"The office seemed to be well administered and it was noticed that the salaries in 1930, as a whole, were higher than in 1929, although the work has considerably increased."

Tax Collector's Office.
"The records in the tax collector's office are received from the tax receiver. They appeared to be in good shape from a clerical standpoint."

"The physical condition of the tax digest books was very poor. This appeared to be principally due to the fact that they are used by the public very carelessly, and it is recommended that an attendant be installed in the basement of the tax collector's office to see that these tax digest books are kept in better condition and are not abused by the public. This attendant could also be responsible for seeing that the proper repairs are made when necessary to these books. Some of these records have been abused to the point where they are hardly useful, and with no attendant, the room is kept in very much disorder."

"The original tax returns apparently are kept indefinitely. It is suggested that if they are destroyed when no longer useful, which we understand is after seven years, considerable room could be secured and the permanent records kept in better shape. Old tax receipt books should also be destroyed after a reasonable period for the same reason."

Tax Receiver.
"The records of the tax receiver are principally the current tax returns and digest books before they are turned over to the tax collector. There was a card record in the tax receiver's office of property not in an incorporated borough."

"The records made to the tax receiver and passed on by the tax assessor when necessary, rather than be made to the tax collector. This consists of taxes returned after the tax books are closed and on the supervision of this property belongs to the tax receiver."

"It is understood that no report is now made showing a comparison of the total

Former Alabama Man Stabs Self in Gotham

NEW YORK, July 3.—(AP)—Suffering from a knife wound in the chest, which police said he admitted was self-inflicted, T. L. Williams, 20 years old, of Birmingham, Ala., was found in a semi-conscious condition in a rooming house on West End avenue.

A rooming house on West End avenue, the Fifth Avenue hospital his condition was said not to be serious. He was resting comfortably today.

Williams came to New York a few weeks ago. The police said he was unemployed and had been despondent. He was found by his roommate, Howard Ritter, who had him removed to the hospital.

Williams, known to his acquaintances here by his middle name of "Loren," is a graduate of the University of Alabama and played halfback on the football team there, police were told.

He was taken home from the hospital and was said today to be recovering rapidly.

"Reviewed" by the grand jury that copies of these presentments be furnished to the Atlanta daily papers, and to the county daily report, with the request that:

ROADS AND BRIDGES.
"Our committee made a thorough inspection of a large number of bridges in the county and went over a large number of roads and have the following recommendations to make:

"The bridges crossing Chattahoochee river seem to be in good condition, and our attention was called to a coal tar preparation that covers the flooring of Mason-Turner bridge. This material provides a smooth surface that helps to eliminate vibration and noise and should add life to our steel bridges."

"The police department of the county is rendering assistance to the construction department in reporting defects in bridges, thereby obtaining immediate and necessary repairs."

"During the last three years the county has reduced their wooden bridges from 26 to six. All of the new bridges being of concrete construction."

"Our committee calls special attention to the dangerous condition of three bridges in Fulton county and the records will show that former grand juries have recommended some immediate action on these bridges as follows:

"A bridge crossing the A. B. & C. Railroad on the Fairburn road.
"A bridge crossing the Seaboard Air Line Railroad and Moore's Mill road at the crossing of this bridge is 30 feet wide and the width of the bridge only 12 feet."

"A bridge crossing the Southern Railroad at Marietta street, opposite the Swift fertilizer works. At the east end of this bridge is a high hill and sharp curve that should be protected, either by wire fence, or some other method to prevent traffic from going over the embankment. An accident of this kind occurred recently."

"Our body urges the county commission to take some action on these three bridges as early as possible."

"We found that repair work done on the Atlanta or Gordon road which had been under for travel had been done with a preparation which we understand is a coal tar mixture and was laid over the old paving about two inches thick, and this new paving, we understand has proven to be durable as well as economical around other cities. This pavement is one of the smoothest in Fulton county and we suggest the public works department check the road and wearing qualities of this new paving."

"It was brought to the attention of our committee that a certain street in Hapeville, 50 feet wide and 1,600 feet long, leading to the new Myrtle Street school, was donated to the county by J. L. Sims of Hapeville, and a contribution by Mr. Sims of $600 was made for the laying of sewer and water mains on this street. Our committee believes that if this street was paved it will serve the interest of the majority of the community of Hapeville, and recommend that this be done as soon as the financial condition of the county will warrant same."

County Schools.
"As the March term of the grand jury made an examination of the buildings and grounds of the county schools, it was not deemed necessary on account of other pressing matters, to again go on an inspection tour. However, we have inspected the office and records of Superintendent Jerry Wells, and find many interesting facts. At present, the county is engaged in reconstructing the Hammond and Ben Hill schools, which will be ready for use by September. Reconstruction of the school building at Bolton has been passed up, but work will not begin until next year. This is done in order not to exceed appropriations for this class of work for 1930."

"While on the subject of construction, it is interesting to note that during the last five years 90 per cent of the county schools have been rebuilt out of general appropriations and without bond issue of any kind."

"The county has 27 white schools, 2 high schools and 19 negro schools. The approximate value of school buildings is $1,222,000; land, $844,000; equipment, $100,000. The average cost per pupil is as follows: High school, $92.00; white elementary, $44.80; colored elementary, $18.42, or a general average of $47.02 per pupil. Mr. Wells has been working the schools on a tight budget, sometimes even not paying salaries, and in all instances stays within his budget, sometimes even not paying salaries."

"The county school superintendent's office force consists of only three people, Mr. Wells, a stenographer and a file clerk. There are only three school superintendents, two white and one colored."

"All in all, the county schools seem to be in excellent condition and economically administered."

Justices of the Peace Dockets.
"The dockets of the Fulton county justices of the peace, with one or two exceptions where the justices are on vacation or out of the county, were examined with one exception, they were in satisfactory shape. One docket was incomplete through carelessness in keeping it, which fact was called to the attention of the justice of the peace, who stated that he would be more careful in the future."

"It was also found that there were several names listed on the list of justices of the peace in the office of the clerk of superior court, where the office was vacant. This information was furnished the ordinary, so that the matter could be checked up and records corrected."

Courthouse Records.
"A check has been made of the courthouse records and the condition is shown and recommendations made herein:

Ordinary's Office.
"The records as a whole seemed to be complete and were well kept and seemed to be up to date. It was noticed that some permanent and vital records were subject to destruction by fire, and it is recommended that fire-proof vaults or safes be provided of sufficient size to safely store the permanent records of this office. The record docket of administrators seemed unnecessary, as the information can be secured, if needed, from other records, and it is recommended that the law calling for this record be repealed."

"The office seemed to be well administered and it was noticed that the salaries in 1930, as a whole, were higher than in 1929, although the work has considerably increased."

Tax Collector's Office.
"The records in the tax collector's office are received from the tax receiver. They appeared to be in good shape from a clerical standpoint."

"The physical condition of the tax digest books was very poor. This appeared to be principally due to the fact that they are used by the public very carelessly, and it is recommended that an attendant be installed in the basement of the tax collector's office to see that these tax digest books are kept in better condition and are not abused by the public. This attendant could also be responsible for seeing that the proper repairs are made when necessary to these books. Some of these records have been abused to the point where they are hardly useful, and with no attendant, the room is kept in very much disorder."

"The original tax returns apparently are kept indefinitely. It is suggested that if they are destroyed when no longer useful, which we understand is after seven years, considerable room could be secured and the permanent records kept in better shape. Old tax receipt books should also be destroyed after a reasonable period for the same reason."

Tax Receiver.
"The records of the tax receiver are principally the current tax returns and digest books before they are turned over to the tax collector. There was a card record in the tax receiver's office of property not in an incorporated borough."

"The records made to the tax receiver and passed on by the tax assessor when necessary, rather than be made to the tax collector. This consists of taxes returned after the tax books are closed and on the supervision of this property belongs to the tax receiver."

"It is understood that no report is now made showing a comparison of the total

MENDENHALL PARDON GRANTED BY FLORIDA

Board's Action Concludes Sensational Case of 15 Years Ago.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., July 3.—(AP)—John J. Mendenhall, who built the prison in which he was sentenced to spend his life, will celebrate Independence Day tomorrow by receiving a conditional pardon.

Convicted 15 years ago of the murder of Mrs. Charles W. Elliot and her daughter, Miss Sue Mendenhall, today won favorable consideration from the pardon board after many previous petitions had failed because of opposition from many sources, especially women's clubs. Prison officials said he had served longer than any other white man in the history of the prison, that he was a model prisoner, and that his health is bad in consequence of a recent operation for cancer. He is about 60 years old.

Mrs. and Miss Elliot were slain and their bodies burned while on an automobile ride with Mendenhall. Guy

Stempel, chauffeur of the car, accused Mendenhall. He denied the charge. He said Miss Elliot had forced her attentions on him, including accompanying him to Chicago, but he was endeavoring to make a financial settlement with her mother. During the ride, he said, Miss Elliot seized his pistol from his pocket and in the ensuing struggle the weapon discharged, killing her. Her mother swooned, he said, and Stempel poured gasoline on the car, which soon was ablaze.

Since in prison Mendenhall has spent most of his time as a trustee. He built the new prison at Raiford, where he is confined, with convict labor. He also has been allowed to make several long trips from the prison to Kentucky, Chicago and Washington.

He has been stationed at Fort Shafter, Hawaii. He was born in New Mexico in 1882, but entered the West Point Military Academy from Wisconsin. Later he graduated from the Army War College and from the Service Bombardment school. He is rated as an air pilot and became a lieutenant colonel in June, 1928.

When Your Head Aches Remember This

Have you a headache? Or are you suffering from neuralgia, periodic pain, or pain in the back and sides? Here's the way to get relief right now.

Take two teaspoonfuls of Capidine in a little water. That's all. Then you can forget the pain.

Capidine being liquid is absorbed by your system at once, and therefore stops pain quickly. Solid medicines require several minutes for dissolving and absorbing before they can help.

Thousands of sufferers every day get quick, blessed relief the Capidine way. Why not you? At all drug stores, by the dose, and in 10c, 25c and 60c bottles.—(adv.)

Henry Pratt Named Assistant Air Chief

WASHINGTON, July 3.—(AP)—Lieutenant Colonel Henry C. Pratt was nominated today by President Hoover to be assistant chief of the air corps with the rank of brigadier general.

He has been stationed at Fort Shafter, Hawaii. He was born in New Mexico in 1882, but entered the West Point Military Academy from Wisconsin. Later he graduated from the Army War College and from the Service Bombardment school. He is rated as an air pilot and became a lieutenant colonel in June, 1928.

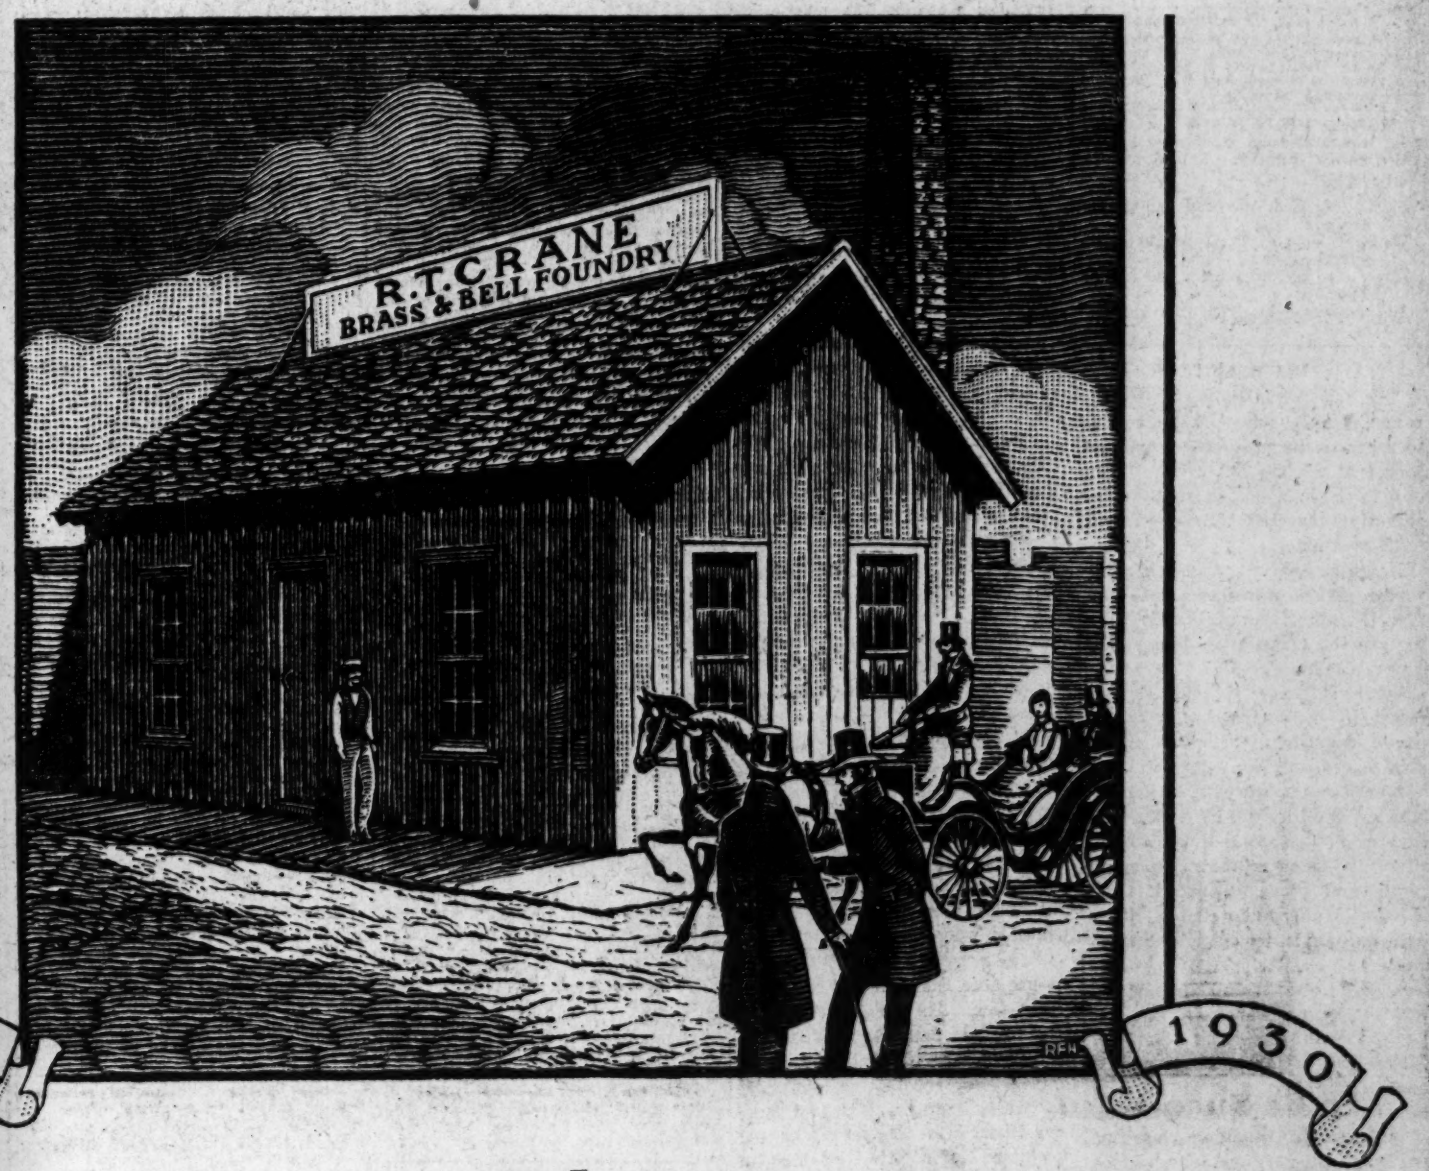

When Your Head Aches Remember This

Have you a headache? Or are you suffering from neuralgia, periodic pain, or pain in the back and sides? Here's the way to get relief right now.

Take two teaspoonfuls of Capidine in a little water. That's all. Then you can forget the pain.

Capidine being liquid is absorbed by your system at once, and therefore stops pain quickly. Solid medicines require several minutes for dissolving and absorbing before they can help.

Thousands of sufferers every day get quick, blessed relief the Capidine way. Why not you? At all drug stores, by the dose, and in 10c, 25c and 60c bottles.—(adv.)

The 75th Anniversary of Crane Co.

It was the 4th of July, 1855. In a modest frame structure at Canal and Fulton Streets, Chicago, R. T. Crane drew from the fire a crucible of molten brass and poured his first castings. Humble in origin, a business was born destined to greatness by the resolution of the founder, a creed of powerful simplicity:

"I am resolved to conduct my business in the strictest honesty and fairness; to avoid all deception and trickery; to deal fairly with both customers and competitors; to be liberal and just toward employees; and to put my whole mind on the business."

By this resolution, steadfastly adhered to, the little structure has expanded into factories that now cover 375 acres and into branches and sales offices in 196 cities of United States and foreign lands. The shadow of the founder, R. T. Crane, has lengthened into a globe-girdling institution with more than 20,000 employees.

The first simple castings poured seventy-five years ago have grown into more than 33,000 Crane products that serve mankind throughout the world... They serve in city homes, humble as well as pretentious, freeing families from the evils of insanitation, from kitchen drudgery, from winter's chill... They serve in rural communities, releasing farmers and their wives from the discomforts and labor imposed by the lack of running water...

They serve in industry, answering every problem of valves and piping for carrying and controlling oil, gas, air, steam, and water.

The Crane creed has been the inspiration for this service. It has been the touchstone by which every subsequent Crane policy has been tested; the secret of the trust evoked among engineers, architects, contractors, and home owners, for every product that bears the Crane name.

Yet whatever progress has been made is accounted only a beginning of a greater growth, a deeper engineering research, a broader service to mankind.

CRANE

CRANE CO., GENERAL OFFICES: 836 SOUTH MICHIGAN AVENUE, CHICAGO

ATLANTA BRANCH: WASHINGTON STREET VIADUCT

Branches and Sales Offices in One Hundred and Ninety-six Cities

Attention Motorists!!

OPEN ALL DAY

COOLSEAR

Tires

Phone WALnut 3393

24-Hour Service

DOBBS TIRE COMPANY

222 SPRING ST., N. W.

Main Store—222 Spring, N. W. 1133 Euclid Ave., N. E.
Piedmont and 12th St., N. E. Ponce de Leon and Clairmont.
400 West Peachtree, N. W. Decatur, DE. 4343

TEMPORARY LOCATIONS
1623 Jonesboro Road, S. E. 785 Gordon, S. W.

NOTICE

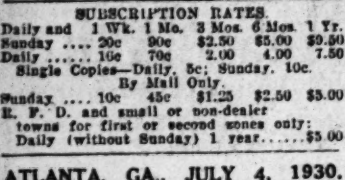

The Atlanta, Birmingham and Coast Railroad announces that service will not be interrupted on account of the fire which destroyed their freight depot Thursday morning.

Immediate and satisfactory arrangements were made for the current receipt and prompt forwarding of all freight, both inbound and outbound, in a warehouse adjacent to the one destroyed by fire. In other words, the service rendered the patrons will be exactly the same as heretofore.

THE CONSTITUTION

CLARE BOWELL
Editor and General Manager
Clare Bowell, Jr., Business Manager

Entered at the Postoffice at Atlanta as second-class matter.

Telephone Walnut 6563.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
Daily and 1 Mo. 1 Yr. 3 Mo. 6 Mos. 1 Yr.
Daily ... 20c 50c $2.00 $5.00 $9.00
Single Copies—Daily, 5c; Sunday, 10c.
By Mail Only
Daily ... 10c 45c $1.50 $3.50 $5.00
By P. O. and small or non-desired amount for first or second class only.
Daily (without Sunday) 1 year ... $9.00

ATLANTA, GA., JULY 4, 1936.
J. B. HOLLIDAY, Constitution Building, 205 Peachtree street, Atlanta, Ga., is the sole publisher of this paper.

THE CONSTITUTION is on sale in New York City at 2 p. m. on the day after issue. It can be had: "Morning News Herald," Broadway and Forty-third street (Times building corner); Schullis News Agency, at Bryant Park and Grand Central Depot.

THE CONSTITUTION is not responsible for advance payments to out-of-town local carriers, dealers or agents. Receipts given for subscription payments not in accordance with published rates and conditions, also not responsible for subscription payments until received at office of publication.

Member of The Associated Press.
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper, and also the local news published herein.

SPRIT FILLED—Be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit.—Eph. 5:18.

PRAYER—
"Spirit of God, descend upon my heart;
Wean it from earth; through all its pulses move;
Stoop to my weakness, might as Thou art.
And make me love Thee as I ought to love."

REPRISAL!
The action of the Italian government in announcing what amounts to a practically prohibitive tariff on American automobiles can be taken only in the light of a reprisal for the recently enacted Hawley-Smoot tariff measure.

It can be expected that other European nations will follow suit—and then the republican party will begin to reap the fruits of its billion dollar grab bill.

What is worse is the serious threat to the welfare of our economic conditions that these prospective reprisals constitute.

America's prosperity is largely founded upon its export trade. The country is incapable of consuming all of its manufactured goods and agricultural products, and it must sell the surplus to foreign markets.

If Europe is to come out from under the staggering load of debts remaining over from the World War, its man-power must be kept busy at profit-producing labor.

At least part of the products of this labor cannot be sold in America; then Europe's trouble is aggravated to the extent to which we close our gates against her, and she cannot be blamed for erecting similar barriers for the protection of her own industries.

Should Europe shut out American wheat and purchase exclusively its immense annual supply from Canada, Russia and the Argentine, or elsewhere, havoc would be played with the wheat industry of this country.

If Europe's textile plants give precedence to the cotton which is being grown in steadily increasing quantities in other sections of the world, and makes use of only such American cotton as is absolutely necessary, the reaction on prices here will be marked.

The action of Italy, and the almost certain prospect of similar reprisals by other nations, make prophetic the recent statement of Wickham Steed, noted English commentator on world affairs and editor of the English Review of Reviews, in which he declared, in warning of the possible effect of the then unenacted Hawley-Smoot bill, that it might result in—

1. A decrease of the reviving international good will toward the United States and, therefore, a diminution of salutary American influence of the world. 2. A growing difficulty in the settlement of international debts and obligations, with a possible decrease of American good will toward other peoples. 3. A growing difficulty in the settlement of international debts and obligations, with a possible decrease of American good will toward other peoples. 4. A growing difficulty in the settlement of international debts and obligations, with a possible decrease of American good will toward other peoples.

Like warnings were delivered by the American press, both republican and democratic, to the stiff-necked followers of Grundyism in the senate while the bill was under consideration—but without effect.

It will be interesting to watch these reprisal developments.

THE SECRET OF BUSINESS.
The address of President Hoover to the conference of state governors at Salt Lake City was timed and phrased to create a psychology of optimism among the depressed people of the nation. He stressed the co-operative efforts of states, cities and business interests to speed construction works and thereby lessen the volume and effects of labor unemployment.

So far as the president could go and did go in boosting that phase of business bulwarking he was illuminating, but he could not claim that business has been notably stabilized by reducing somewhat the percentage of labor unemployment which otherwise might have been catastrophic.

Every one familiar with the circumstances in which the business of the nation stands knows that the percentage of labor employed is only one of many factors that have contributed to the deepening depression into which business has been slipping since fully a year ago.

One of the things which impelled people to rush their money into the stock market and by a ravenous demand inflate the prices of speculative stocks was a desire to foretell the losses of diminishing demands for wares and utility services. The people were showing distinct losses of earning and purchasing power. In the face of that millions of persons with surplus cash in hand tried to make it earn in the stock market what it could not earn in the channels of ordinary business.

President Hoover has held upon a right idea—the basic dependence of business prosperity upon the purchasing power of the common people—but he is not able to make it work out in more than mildly preventive effects. Overproduction in the factories and on the farms are factors adverse to an early and general business revival. Prosperity must begin among the masses before labor can prosper and factories and marts become active and profitable.

WHERE PROHIBITION HINGES.
The big and aggravating question of prohibition enforcement has now been transferred to the federal department of justice. And what may the people reasonably expect in the way of better prohibition from that shift?

Ten years of enforcement efforts under the authority of the treasury department have been practically futile. Any man who will claim that prohibition up to date is a successful experiment, "noble in purpose" if you will, has not even a speaking acquaintance with the virtue called truth.

The conditions of liquorism in the United States were never worse than today. While it is true that governments no longer partnership the making and selling of liquors, and while the open saloon is under a generally approved ban and cannot be admitted to commerce again, those two effects are not proving adequate compensations for the liquor outlaws, the bootlegging and speakeasy free trade, and the widespread repulsion to prohibition and general social demoralization that now afflicts the nation like an incurable plague.

Many persons earnestly desirous to promote national popular sobriety—men like President Hoover, Attorney General Mitchell, Chairman Wickham Steed, Frank Loesch, of the law enforcement commission, and Rabbi Stephen Wise, of New York, have evidently arrived at the conclusion that the prohibition amendment can only be enforced with the full cooperation of the states. Their most recent opinions are all to that effect.

But the states will not give that plenary cooperation as long as the congress and the courts hold, as they are bound to do, that the states have no will in the matter except to bow to and concur with the national prohibition act. No appeal to state's rights can be effective while the states have no rights in the matter. So that, if prohibition must eventually be dependent upon state enforcement, why not say so at once with an amended prohibition law that will wholly throw the responsibility for its liquor conditions upon each state?

THE STATUE OF BUCHANAN.
At the unveiling in Washington of a statue of James Buchanan, fifteenth president of the United States, President Hoover made an appreciative and justified address. In it he summarized the character and services of a really great American, whose administration of the government was harassed by the inflamed events which led into the War Between the States, and whose dealings with those events made him subsequently, and until even now, one of the most unjustly maligned presidents the nation has ever had.

Buchanan was a publicist of eminent qualifications. He arose from the ranks of the common citizenship and early decided to concentrate his abilities to the service of the people. He refrained from marriage and wedded himself to the general welfare. He became a distinguished member of the federal legislature, an effective minister at foreign courts, a forceful cabinet member, and a president who held fast to the constitution of the republic when it was engulfed in storms of passion and warfare. He served his country with honor and fidelity and deserves the distinction which justice, art and history now combine to award him.

Social arithmetic at Hollywood still covers addition, division and subtraction.

Germany does not seem yet to have gotten the republican idea well under her bonnet.

If Mussolini can out-manuever Briand the diplomatic world will regard him as a real cracker-jack.

THE WORLD'S WINDOW

BY PIERRE VAN PAASSEN

Real Names In Fiction.

Pierre Mille is the latest of the French authors who have had to meet a claim for damages for having unwittingly given the name of a real person to a character in a story.

Years ago Zola, who called a magistrate in "Pot-Bouille" by the name of Duverdy, fought and lost an action which was brought against him by a member of the Paris court of appeal.

Now that name, later, Alphonse Daudet only chose the name of Tartarin for his comic hero because a tradesman in Tarascon objected to the name of Zola.

His One who was not inclined to sympathize with any of these authors than with the film company, which the Duc de Brissac has just successfully prosecuted for having given his name to one of the less attractive persons in a film version of "Zaza."

A play about theatrical life. Pierre Mille or Zola or Daudet might reasonably be supposed not to have known that there was any real person of the name which he had chosen. But the film company which "Zaza" was made by knew that the Duc de Brissac was a Marshal of France in the seventeenth century and that another was killed during the Revolution when he was colonel of the Swiss guard.

Sherman's Idea.
The war film treated entirely from the pacifist point of view must needs be appalling in its effect. This has been achieved by "Western Front, 1918," a production which has been shown in Berlin, adapted from a story dealing with four comrades on the western front. Not only are the heart and entrancing noises of the war faithfully reproduced, but it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war, it has been thought good to include hospital scenes as well. The groans of the dying and the ravings of the temporarily insane are all the same as the groans and ravings of the sane. Germany's preoccupation with the machine and the grime some is given too full a rein for the sensitive, but as a deterrent to the wine and the pleasures of the war

MRS. PALMER SUES FOR HOTEL EVICTION

S. A. Lynch Finance Corporation Named in $300,000 Action in Federal Court.

Allegations that she was evicted from the Columbus hotel, at Miami, are contained in a $300,000 damage suit filed in federal court Wednesday by Mrs. Julia Meader Palmer against the S. A. Lynch Enterprise Finance Corporation.

Mrs. Palmer, who is a daughter of the late C. D. Meader, Atlanta tax assessor, and whose husband, T. W. Palmer, was formerly a business partner of S. A. Lynch, avers that entry to her hotel suite was made by the management through a hole cut in the screen, after which her belongings were removed from the suite and a new lock put on the door.

This, she said, occurred on September 27, 1929, while she was in another part of the city attempting to calm her aged mother who was agitated by the approach of the storm then raging over the Florida coast.

All of her wedding gifts, trophies won by her husband in golf tournaments, silverware and other furnishings were alleged to have been lost, stolen or ruined as the result.

Mrs. Palmer held the suite, a three-room apartment, by virtue of a paid-up lease, expiring in 1941. A copy of the lease sets out that Lynch was the owner and in control of the Hotel Operating Company of America, which operated the Columbus hotel.

In the damages asked the unexpected leasehold is valued at $150,000; hotel service and accommodations guaranteed in the lease, $85,000; loss and damage to personal effects, $25,000; cost of improvements made by her in the apartment, $10,000, and $50,000 is asked "because of eviction and the unseemly manner in which it was carried out."

Endurance Flight Records Interest Many Atlantans

Twelve Assembly Aspirants Plan Fourteen Joint Campaign Meetings.

While the indomitable Hunter brothers continue their interminable figure 8's in the air above Sky Harbor in the veteran "City of Chicago" after having hung up a new world's endurance flight record, Atlantans today recalled their interest of a year ago when another pair of aviators were zooming in the plane "Miss Cleveland" above the Ohio city of that name—making what was then a new sustained flight record.

It was on July 4, 1929, that Byron K. Newcomb and Roy L. Mitchell, in the "Miss Cleveland," safely passed their 150th hour in the air and stubbornly flew about the airway above the field for 24 more hours, to land at 12:39:50, eastern standard time, on the morning of Saturday, July 6. They had beaten the endurance flight record of the "Fort Worth," which had hung up a record of 172:32 hours a short time previously.

Today the "City of Chicago," piloted by two Illinois farm boys, have more than trebled that amazing record of a year ago. Thursday afternoon at 12:40 o'clock the Hunters were 105 hours ahead of the previous record, set by the St. Louis Robin.

At that time the Hunters had been in the air continuously for 525 hours, having announced their determination to fly the old plane as long as it "holds together." At 12:40 p. m. today they will have entered their 236th consecutive day in the air, with the satisfying knowledge that any subsequent attempt to set aside their record will be confronted with one of the most formidable handicaps ever experienced in aviation.

The suit, which was filed by Winfield P. Jones, as attorney, was made returnable the first Monday in October.

tion and the unseemly manner in which it was carried out."

FULTON CANDIDATES TO BAR PAID WORKERS

Twelve Assembly Aspirants Plan Fourteen Joint Campaign Meetings.

All 12 candidates for the three Fulton county seats in the lower house of the Georgia general assembly Thursday signed a compact agreeing not to employ paid workers in the campaign. Binding themselves also to a time limit of 10 minutes for each candidate's speech, the aspirants for legislative honors also agreed to limit the total number of public meetings to 14 in each county.

The candidates, who are: Adams, Jesse B. Simmons, Don Johnston, M. G. Hicks, Johnny J. Jones, V. E. Phillips, Swift Tyler, Jr., Bond Almand, William G. McRae, Luther Still, Jr., J. O. Wood, Eckford, and George A. Eckford, included in the contract a provision that they would bear the pro rata expense of the auditoriums they use.

The full text of the agreement follows:

"We, the undersigned candidates for representative from Fulton county in the general assembly of Georgia, subject to the democratic primary to be held in said county on September 10, 1930, desiring to run an economical and orderly campaign, and yet desiring to give the voters of Fulton county an opportunity to see and hear us in order that they may not be forced to go to the polls and vote blindly as to what we stand for, and for and in consideration of the mutual promises of one to another, and of the mutual benefits therefrom to each other, hereby make and enter into the following agreement:

"We agree that we will not employ any paid workers at the polls or elsewhere, nor knowingly permit our friends and supporters to pay money to anyone to work for us, house-to-house canvassing, or otherwise during this campaign.

"We further agree that we will hold 14 meetings in various parts of the county covering the entire county, holding two meetings each week, beginning on the 21st day of July, 1930, and that no candidate or representative of any candidate other than for representative of Fulton county shall be permitted to speak at any of our meetings until all 12 candidates for representative shall have spoken or had an opportunity to speak.

"We further agree to limit each speaker to 10 minutes of time for each speech. At the first meeting the candidates to succeed Luther Still shall speak first in alphabetical order, followed by the candidates to succeed Miss Kempton in alphabetical order, and then the candidates to succeed Dr. Brown in alphabetical order. At the second meeting the candidates to succeed Miss Kempton shall speak first, followed by the candidates to succeed Dr. Brown, and then the candidates to succeed Luther Still. At the third meeting the candidates to succeed Dr. Brown shall speak first, followed by the candidates to succeed Mr. Still, and then the candidates to succeed Miss Kempton. At the fourth meeting they would come in the same order as at first and then repeat to the end of the campaign.

"The order of speaking of the individuals participating in the campaign shall also rotate—for example, Adams, Almand, Eckford and Tyler would be the order for the Brown candidates to speak at the first meeting; second meeting Almand, Eckford, Tyler and Adams; third meeting, Eckford, Tyler, Adams and Almand; fourth meeting, Tyler, Adams, Almand and Eckford; and at the fifth meeting they would speak in the same order as at the first meeting and then repeat to the end of the campaign.

"We further agree that each of us will pay our pro rata share of the cost of the auditorium in which we meet each time.

"We further agree that we will not take any cards in addition to those already subscribed in any newspapers, periodicals, programs, except those papers published daily or weekly the year round.

"In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our hands and affixed our seals this June 26, 1930, copy to each party, all originals.

(Signed) (1) V. E. Adams, (2) Jesse B. Simmons, (3) Don Johnston, (4) M. G. Hicks, (5) Johnny J. Jones, (6) E. E. Phillips, (7) Swift Tyler, Jr., (8) Bond Almand, (9) William G. McRae, (10) Luther Still, (11) J. O. Wood, (12) George A. Eckford, (L. S.)

Eight Plead Guilty And Receive Fines

Eight pleas of guilty were filed in federal court Thursday and sentences and fines imposed.

The majority of the pleas were filed in connection with the theft of an interstate shipment of cigars. H. D. Campbell and W. Melvin Kimball each were sentenced to two years, Ernest Haynes, white, and Will and Henry Baker, negroes, to one year and a day each. Their sentences will run from January 21, when they were imprisoned. Ed Johnson, negro, was sentenced to six additional months in jail in the same case.

James Basil Holbert, ex-Colorado convict, jointly indicted with Whitey Craig, former Emory student and junior high school physical training instructor, was sentenced to 15 months' imprisonment on a charge of violating the federal automobile theft act.

Holbert admitted stealing the car found at Craig's home, but charged that Craig stole the car from him. Records of the department of justice show that he stole the car in Chicago. Craig is now at liberty under bond pending trial.

W. C. House, who Thursday began serving a sentence of a year and a day for transporting liquor, pleaded guilty to another charge of possessing liquor and was fined $200.

Little Rock Rotary Hears John H. Lewis

Georgians who recall John H. Lewis, negro educator born at Americus, and graduated at Morris Brown, where he also served as president for eight years, will be interested in knowing that he was accorded the honor of being invited to deliver an address before the Little Rock (Ark.) Rotary Club on the work the Paul Laurence Dunbar school, of which he is principal, is doing for negro youths. He is the first of his race ever to speak to the club.

An article appearing in a recent issue of the Arkansas Democrat, quoting parts of his Rotary talk, says that the school which Professor Lewis now heads—formerly opened last April. The Rosenwald Foundation and the general education board have contributed liberally to the $400,000 cost of construction.

After graduating at Morris Brown, where he worked his way through, Lewis graduated later from both Chicago and Yale Universities. He is regarded as one of the outstanding leaders of his race in the south.

Fire Chief Urges Safe and Sane 4th

Fire Chief John Terrell appealed to Atlantans for a safe and sane celebration of the Fourth of July.

In a statement that stressed the hazard of children playing with fireworks he said:

"Friday is the Fourth of July, the birthday of our republic. On that day the people will celebrate our national independence, many of them by the usual display of fireworks and in other ways that may endanger life, limb and property.

"As the servant of the people, and as one who loves Atlanta I take this means of appealing to your better judgment to be as careful on that day as on all other days of the year. Particularly am I appealing to parents because I am thinking of the little children in their homes.

"More children die from fire than from any other kind of accidental injury. Classification shows that 66 per cent of the deaths by fire in this country occur in the homes, which means a home fire for every four minutes each day in the year. One of the startling features of this record, too, is that 31 per cent of those deaths are children under 10 years of age.

"Matches of all kinds should be kept out of the reach of children. Firecrackers, torpedoes and all other dangerous varieties of fireworks should not be permitted in their hands."

PHYSICIAN AGAIN HELD ON NARCOTIC CHARGE

Heavy Bond Assessed Dr. Louis Balmari After Second Raid.

Dr. Louis Balmari, Pryor street physician who several weeks ago was the central figure in an exposure of alleged wholesale narcotic sales here, again was in the hands of the law Thursday when city and federal officers raided his offices.

Held before Federal Commissioner Ed. S. Griffith on charges of possessing and disposing of narcotics, a $7,000 bond was required of Balmari by the judge, who declared that Balmari's place was a "stitch in the nostrils of all decent people and I am determined to break it up."

Balmari, with J. C. Martin, 187 Fair street, whom officers said acted for the physician in disposing of morphine purchased by him, was returned to jail in default of bond.

Testimony before Judge Griffith centered around a 54-ounce bottle of morphine tablets, still in the original paper wrappings. The statement was made that Balmari purchased it and passed it on to Martin, who acted in selling it.

Heavy Bond Fixed. Balmari on stand denied knowledge of the morphine. "I am convinced that you purchased the morphine and that you passed it on to Martin to sell," Judge Griffith stated. "If you came out and told the truth about it I would see what I could do for you. But you won't."

BURGESS MADE HEAD OF DECATUR CHAMBER

Secretary Will Be Elected at Meeting of Directors Wednesday.

Hugh Burgess was elected president of the Decatur Chamber of Commerce at a meeting of the directors Thursday afternoon.

Other officers named were: Leon O'Neal, first vice president; H. H. Howard, second vice president; Mel Turner, treasurer, and C. H. Blount, chairman of the board of directors. The office of secretary will not be filled until next Wednesday night when a special meeting of the board will be held at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. Burgess is to succeed John Wesley Weeks, retiring president.

Fair Weather Promised City For Festivities

Interest at 4 per cent if left 90 days. We offer these as attractive investments for temporarily idle funds.

4% Certificate of Deposit 4%

Georgia Savings Bank & Trust Co.

74 Peachtree Street Member Federal Reserve System

Capital and Surplus, $1,000,000.00

July 4th, 1930!

High's Will Be Closed All Day!

What a different July 4th from that one of so long ago! But we remember... and we commemorate that great occasion... the Dawn of Liberty. It is fitting and just that we should celebrate with rejoicings!

All over this great land of ours we join in the day of celebration. That every person, every home in this land of ours partake in the joy and happiness of the occasion is our sincere wish.

Open All Day Saturday

J. M. High Co.

47 Years a "Modern" Store

HAGE AND HAGE—A FINER DRY PALE GINGER ALE

A DELIGHTFUL DRINK
Made From An Old Scotch Blend

Whether you like Ginger Ale as a drink or a mixer you can't find a finer, mellower ale than Hage & Hage. This sparkling dry pale ginger ale is made from an old Scotch Blend. It is superior in both quality and taste yet it costs less than ales of inferior quality.

Hage and Hage is packed in convenient cartons of six bottles (split), sold everywhere. It is also put up in pints which are sold exclusively by the better drug stores.

THE RED ROCK COMPANY

HAGE AND HAGE
DRY
PALE GINGER ALE

Declaration of INDEPENDENCE

By FULTON NATIONAL BANK of ATLANTA

An Open Statement of Policy By Its Officers and Directors

In view of the many changes that have taken place in the banking field during recent years and being convinced that the interests of its present and future customers can be best served and secured by the preservation of the independent position of the institution, the officers and directors declare

THAT The Fulton National Bank of Atlanta, by virtue of its conservative and independent banking policy is now the largest bank in Georgia retaining its original name and identity.

THAT this historic continuity must remain unbroken.

THAT the Capital and Surplus of the institution, when considered in relation to its responsibilities, is fully adequate to take care of the requirements of its customers.

THAT it has always been and will continue to be the policy of the institution not to purchase or sell from and to itself any securities whatever for the account of any of the trusts or estates under the management of its Trust Department. This institution is not a distributor of securities, either directly or through an affiliated company. This is of distinct advantage to its customers and to all those interested in the investment of funds as its advice and information concerning investments are entirely impartial.

THAT the wisdom of our policy is evidenced by the increase of 40 percent in the deposits of the bank within the past twelve months.

THAT there is a real need and plan for a conservatively managed bank of moderate size where customers, both in the Banking and Trust Departments, have easy access to and personal acquaintance with the officers.

THAT the Trust Department is completely equipped to care for the largest estates and trusts, as well as for those of moderate size, and that its record of administration of trusts of all kinds entitles it to rank among the leaders.

OFFICERS

BOLLING H. JONES
Chairman of the Board

RYBURN G. CLAY
President

RONALD RANSOM
Vice President

FRANK W. BLALOCK
Vice President

W. V. CROWLEY
Vice President

GARNETT G. EVANS
Cashier

W. RALPH DELOACH
Assistant Cashier

CONE E. BOND
Assistant Cashier

LEON A. GILBERT
Assistant Cashier

WILLIAM MATTHEWS
Trust Officer

HAROLD HIRSCH and
MARION SMITH
Counsel

DIRECTORS

A. C. Blalock
F. W. Blalock
Melvin Bodenheimer
B. L. Buge
H. E. Choate
R. G. Clay
William V. Crowley
Clarence Haverly
William T. Healey
J. H. Hines
Bolling H. Jones
Henry B. Kennedy
Thos. C. Law
J. R. Mobley
Frank G. North
R. S. Pringle
Langdon C. Quin
W. L. Randall
Ronald Ransom
Hugh Richardson, Jr.
Dr. Dunbar Roy
Simon E. Selig
J. E. Skaggs
Hoke Smith
Marion Smith
F. O. Stone

FULTON
NATIONAL BANK

MARIETTA STREET—NEAR FIVE POINTS
PEACHTREE ROAD OFFICE—BUCKHEAD PETERS ST. OFFICE—WALKER and PETERS STS.

PAGE SIX

U.S. URGED TO HASTEN CONSTRUCTION WORK

Georgian's Resolution Passed by House and Senate.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—(Special.)—In an effort to relieve unemployment conditions throughout the country both houses of congress passed a resolution today sponsored jointly by Representative Thomas M. Bell and Senator Walter F. George, of Georgia, calling on the federal building commission to expedite as fast as possible all work on public construction projects.

It was regarded as a parliamentary tribute to the two Georgia members that action on the resolution was taken in both chambers on the same day.

Representative Bell gained approval of the measure in the house first and shortly afterward Senator George succeeded in effecting passage in the upper chamber.

The resolution calls attention of the federal commission to the large appropriations made by congress for buildings over the country and then declares it to be the sense of congress that contracts for actual construction be let as early as circumstances permit.

In a sense the measure may be interpreted as criticism of the delay that has marked operations on the gigantic public building program involving hundreds of millions of dollars.

Representative Bell joined with Senator George in expressing the hope that the commission will press its program to an early completion. Release of the great fund held in the treasury for such construction, they said, would prove an important stimulus to employment and the restoration of normal conditions. The resolution is certain to have an immediate reaction among public building officials.

NEW INDICTMENTS ARE RETURNED

Continued from First Page.

tions found in all cases tried, but one, with several under indictment, still to be tried, and still others having pleaded guilty and sentenced by the court.

Public Aroused.

"Public sentiment is thoroughly aroused, and our best citizens demand that this investigation be continued until we rid our city of all dishonest officials."

"This body made a special presentation on May 30, calling attention to a bold attempt made to corruptly influence certain jurors in the Taylor case, and we feel that such practices cannot be too severely condemned, nor punished, and if allowed to continue will destroy the integrity of our court, and bring contempt on our whole judicial system."

"Therefore, we respectfully urge that our best citizens rise up and make a determined effort to stamp out such debauchery, as no government can survive without respect for law."

"This body through a special committee has gone into the financial condition of our county and submits herewith the report of said committee."

"This body finds that certain county commissioners have either purchased or have been deceived by certain interests in subdivisions, for $10 and other valuable considerations, and that Fulton county has and is spending large sums to grade and pave these subdivisions at the expense of the taxpayers."

"This body strongly condemns such practices, and urges the county commissioners to discontinue the building of any new roads until the finances of our county are put back on a sound basis."

Boykin Praised.

"This grand jury wishes to express its appreciation to Solicitor Boykin and his able assistants for their co-operation and faithful efforts in undertaking to give our city a clean government, and we feel sure that Mr. Boykin will carry on this splendid work, which has already been started, to a full completion and until the city of Atlanta is represented only by clean, conscientious and upright officials, which will mean much to the continued growth of our city."

"The attention of this body was called to certain alleged irregularities, by certain county officials, and some witnesses were heard, in way of investigation, but for lack of time by this body, and also due to the fact that the solicitor was giving all his time to prosecution of those under indictment connected with the city government, and feeling that this work should be pushed to a conclusion, we deem it wise to postpone this investigation for some future grand jury, when the solicitor can give his full time and attention to same, believing that this should be done, so as to relieve any unjust criticism of county officials, and at the same time give to the public any irregularities in county affairs, should any exist."

The indictments against the three city officials were handed to Judge Moore together with the presentments and indictments of several others for minor offenses.

Text of Indictments.

Osburn is charged with bribery, it being alleged that on June 23, 1928, he did unlawfully receive of and from Lawrence Manning six hundred dollars ($600) in money as a reward given the accused by said Manning for procuring the delivery of the city of Atlanta of two Elgin motor street sweepers at $6,081.50 each.

"Said delivery to and acceptance of said reward by accused being in pursuance of an agreement whereby the said Manning did consent to give to the accused a reward as above stated for the purpose of influencing the official behavior of the accused in the matter of procuring the above stated order from the city of Atlanta."

The bill against Dobbs charging that he was interested in a city contract alleged that "being then and there a legally qualified councilman and member of the general council of the city of Atlanta, a municipal corporation, did become unlawfully and corruptly interested in a certain contract with the city of Atlanta having for its object the expenditure of its money, the contract referred to being entered into between the city of Atlanta and the Elgin Street Sweeper Company and involving the purchase by the said city of Atlanta from said company of two Elgin motor street sweepers at $6,081.50 each."

"Accused having agreed to undertake to aid in procuring the said order for said sweepers from the city of Atlanta to said company upon the promise by Lawrence Manning, who was an agent acting for and in behalf of said company that the accused would be given the sum of $200 in money if the said order was in fact placed with the said company by the said city, and accused having actually received $100 of said amount from said Manning after the said order was in fact so placed and accused did thereby become willfully, voluntarily and corruptly interested in the said contract with the city of Atlanta."

The new bills against York and Osburn, with York's name therein inserted and the amount allegedly involved in the transaction, $200, replacing the amounts alleged to have

Indicted in Graft Probe

ALDERMAN DOBBS.

Six more indictments were returned Thursday by the outgoing grand jury as a result of its investigation into alleged municipal corruption, Alderman W. Guy Dobbs, Councilman J. T. Osburn and former Councilman Harry York being accused of bribery and becoming interested in a city contract.

Curbing from the city of Atlanta, a municipal corporation, an order to the Elgin Street Sweeper Company for the delivery to the city of Atlanta of two Elgin motor street sweepers at $6,081.50 each, said order being placed with the said company by the city of Atlanta, acting through its purchasing agent, with the signed sanction of accused as chairman of the purchasing committee of the general council of the city of Atlanta.

"Said delivery to and acceptance of said reward by accused being in pursuance of an agreement whereby the said Manning did consent to give to the accused a reward as above stated for the purpose of influencing the official behavior of the accused in the matter of procuring the said company said order from the city of Atlanta, the said Osburn being then and there a legally qualified councilman and member of the general council of the city of Atlanta, and being chairman of the purchasing committee of said general council which committee was vested by lawful ordinance of the city of Atlanta with the duty of supervising the purchasing department of the city of Atlanta and especially purchases where the amount involved exceeded $500, the said ordinance of the city of Atlanta requiring the signed sanction of said purchasing committee before such an order exceeding the sum of $500 could be placed in behalf of the city of Atlanta."

"Said acts of accused being unknown until after the date of June 1, 1930, and said acts being contrary to the laws of said state, the good order, peace and dignity thereof."

The second indictment against Osburn charges a misdemeanor in that "on June 23, 1928, with force and arms being then and there a legally qualified councilman and member of the general council of the city of Atlanta, a municipal corporation, did become unlawfully and corruptly interested in a certain contract with the city of Atlanta having for its object the expenditure of its money, the contract referred to being entered into between the city of Atlanta and the Elgin Street Sweeper Company and involving the purchase by the said city of Atlanta from said company of two Elgin motor street sweepers at $6,081.50 each."

"Accused having agreed to undertake to procure and having undertaken to procure the said contract from the city of Atlanta upon the promise by Lawrence Manning, acting for and in behalf of the said Elgin Street Sweeper Company, that accused would be given the sum of $600 in money if the said contract was in fact made, and accused having actually received said money from said Manning as aforesaid after said contract had in fact been entered into; and accused did thereby become willfully, voluntarily and corruptly interested in the said contract with the city of Atlanta, said acts of accused and said offense being unknown until after the date of June 1, 1930, and said acts being contrary to the laws of said state, the good order, peace and dignity thereof."

Bill Against Dobbs.

The bribery bill against Dobbs charges that he "did unlawfully receive of and from Lawrence Manning, one hundred dollars ($100) in money as a reward given to the accused by said Manning to influence the official behavior of the accused in the matter of procuring for the city of Atlanta, a municipal corporation, an order to the Elgin Street Sweeper Company for the delivery to the city of Atlanta of two Elgin motor street sweepers at $6,081.50 each."

"Said delivery to and acceptance of said reward by accused being in pursuance of an agreement whereby the said Manning did consent to give to the accused a reward as above stated for the purpose of influencing the official behavior of the accused in the matter of procuring the above stated order from the city of Atlanta."

The bill against Dobbs charging that he was interested in a city contract alleged that "being then and there a legally qualified councilman and member of the general council of the city of Atlanta, a municipal corporation, did become unlawfully and corruptly interested in a certain contract with the city of Atlanta having for its object the expenditure of its money, the contract referred to being entered into between the city of Atlanta and the Elgin Street Sweeper Company and involving the purchase by the said city of Atlanta from said company of two Elgin motor street sweepers at $6,081.50 each."

"Accused having agreed to undertake to aid in procuring the said order for said sweepers from the city of Atlanta to said company upon the promise by Lawrence Manning, who was an agent acting for and in behalf of said company that the accused would be given the sum of $200 in money if the said order was in fact placed with the said company by the said city, and accused having actually received $100 of said amount from said Manning after the said order was in fact so placed and accused did thereby become willfully, voluntarily and corruptly interested in the said contract with the city of Atlanta."

The new bills against York and Osburn, with York's name therein inserted and the amount allegedly involved in the transaction, $200, replacing the amounts alleged to have wood, 70 Astor avenue, Blackhall; Creed Taylor, federal reserve bank; N. C. McPherson, Sr., 1438 North Highland, N. E.; J. S. McDonald, Brown Mill road, Southend; E. L. Springer, 1600 Howell Mill road; R. W. Courts, Jr., 24 Cherokee road, Buckhead; A. M. Lloyd, 676 Seminole, N. E.; J. J. Bookout, 903 Virginia avenue, N. E.; M. H. Nance, Oak Grove; J. N. Reed, Oak Grove; H. L. Singer, 608 Seminole, N. E.; Charles Lortians, 150 Fifteenth, N. E.; C. T. Nunnally, 904 Peachtree, N. E.; John Ashley Jones, 187 Fourteenth, N. E.; John T. Carroll, Collins; Julian Boehm, 835 Myrtle, N. E.; Luke Seawell, 130 Seventeenth; J. M. Galt, 637 Peachtree, N. E.; Eugene R. Harris, 1732 Rock Springs road; L. P. Pairo, 2337 Peachtree road; George L. Word, 3387 Piedmont road; P. C. McDuffie, 306 West Peachtree; J. M. Hollowell, 329 Home Park, N. W.

DR. W. A. SUTTON HEADS EDUCATORS

Continued from First Page.

lanta's schools and the marked progress made during his administration has won widespread praise.

EDUCATORS DEMAND PART TIME IN AIR

COLUMBUS, Ohio, July 3.—(AP)—The National Education Association today voiced its disapproval of tobacco advertising and any arrangement of radio broadcasting channels that does not provide education and government with a reasonable share of time on the air.

This action was taken in the adoption of a committee report on resolutions. The resolution pertaining to tobacco advertising was approved in the face of strong opposition and by a vote so close that a count of the delegates had to be taken.

The radio resolution placed the association on record as favoring the enactment of legislation which will "safeguard for the use of education and government a reasonable share of the radio broadcasting channels of the United States."

While the representative assembly was approving this report, Ira E. Robinson, member of the federal radio commission appeared before a general session and called upon educators to "strike down an impending monopoly of the air by commercial interests."

Heads Educators

DR. W. A. SUTTON.

Radio, he said, is public property but can become the tool of evil as much as it can be made a great power of good.

Eugenia Bankhead's Honeymoon Delayed

RENO, Nev., July 3.—(AP)—The fourth honeymoon of the former En-

Borglum's Washington To Be Unveiled Today

RAPID CITY, S. D., July 3.—(AP)—The colossal figure of George Washington carved on granite on the face of Mount Rushmore in the Black Hills will be unveiled tomorrow as the first step in the completion of Gutzon Borglum's sculpturing of a huge national monument.

At noon on Independence Day a large American flag will be withdrawn, revealing Borglum's gigantic head of Washington, 60 feet from wig to chin and topping the figure on the scale of a man 420 feet tall.

Borglum, Governor W. J. Bulow, Done Robinson, former state historian, who first proposed the Rushmore memorial, and President G. C. O'Hara, of South Dakota School of Mines, are scheduled to speak at the unveiling of the mountainside, in the heart of the Black Hills.

Washington's head is the first of four figures which Borglum plans to carve on the granite escarpment of Mount Rushmore. Already some drilling has been done on the face of Jefferson. Figures of Lincoln and Roosevelt will complete the work.

Calvin Coolidge has started to write a brief history of the United States to be carved on the mountainside near the monument.

Dr. O'Hara, geologist, estimates that the monument will withstand ravages of time and erosion for 500,000 years.

The first annual meeting of the Mount Rushmore National Memorial Society of the Black Hills was held today. The society is to guard and perpetuate the monument.

Eugenia Bankhead, daughter of Congressman Bankhead, of Alabama, has been delayed by the illness of her third husband, Howard Lee, aviator.

The ailment was diagnosed as appendicitis. Lee collapsed Tuesday night, ending the wedding festivities attended by 20 guests. Physicians said today his condition was not serious and the honeymoon might not be delayed more than a day or two.

Mrs. Eugenia Bankhead Hoyt Butt last Monday obtained a semblance of her marriage to Wilfred Lawson Butt, former University of Nevada student, whom she married here last December after a second divorce from her first husband.

Oklahoma Candidate Beats Barring Move

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 3.—(AP)—District Judge Sam Hooker today sustained the demurrer of Charles J. Wrightman, of Tulsa, candidate for the democratic nomination for United States senator, to a petition of Woodson Norvell, also of Tulsa, seeking to restrain the state election board from printing Wrightman's name on the primary ballot.

Norvell, a rival candidate, gave notice of appeal to the state supreme court.

East Point Turns On White Way Lights

Citizens of East Point jammed the public square there Thursday night when at 8 o'clock the new white way on Main street was turned on for the first time. An elaborate program was given, which included music by the Georgia-Railway & Power Co. band, and speeches by Alfred C. Brown, of College Park, and William P. Middlebrooks, secretary of the East Point Chamber of Commerce. The speakers were introduced by Colonel E. E. Phillips, city attorney.

BETWEEN NOW and JULY EIGHTH

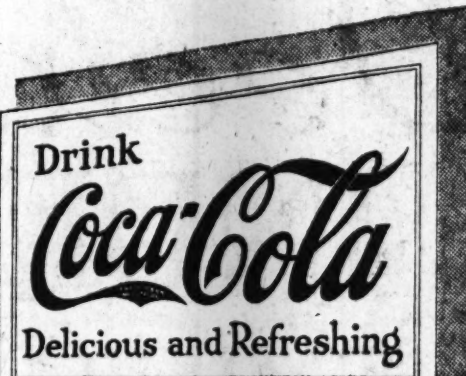

START the last half of 1930 right by laying financial foundations for years to come.

Do it with savings deposits at Citizens and Southern National. The money you deposit now will draw interest from July 1.

No Account Too Large, None Too Small

CITIZENS & SOUTHERN NATIONAL BANK

Markets at Broad Mitchell at Forsyth Candler Building Peachtree at Tenth

"Meet me at the soda fountain"

for the Pause that refreshes

Always a happy invitation to good company, and so easy to act upon. For, around the corner from anywhere, there's always a cool and cheerful place where Coca-Cola invites you to enjoy refreshment and be refreshed for enjoyment.

Ice-cold, sparkling, delicious—pure as sunlight—Coca-Cola is the one drink that fits all times, all places, all thirsty needs. And, along with millions of people every day, you'll find the pause for its wholesome refreshment a delightful way to well-being.

THE BEST SERVED DRINK IN THE WORLD

A pure drink of natural flavors served ice-cold in its own glass and in its own bottle. The crystal-thin Coca-Cola glass that represents the best in soda fountain service. The distinctive Coca-Cola bottle you can always identify; it is sterilized, filled and sealed air-tight without the touch of human hands, insuring purity and wholesomeness.

The Coca-Cola Company, Atlanta, Ga.

How to Stop Skin Itching In 2 Minutes

If you suffer from skin eruptions of any kind, pimples, itch, tetter, ring worm, eczema, etc., a pleasant ointment, known as Tetterine, containing highly effective parasite germ-destroying and skin-healing properties, never fails to bring quick and permanent relief.

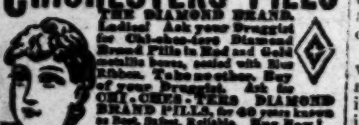

Tetterine, by its cooling, soothing, antiseptic effect, kills the parasites that bore into the skin, causing irritation and itching. Tetterine is sold and guaranteed by all druggists at 60c a box.—(adv.)

666

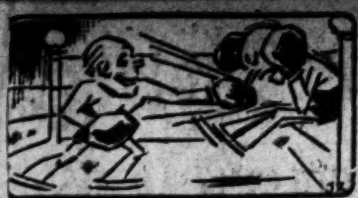

Relieves a Headache or Neuritis in 30 minutes, checks a Cold the first day, and checks Malaria in three days.

666 also in Tablets.

CHICHESTERS PILLS

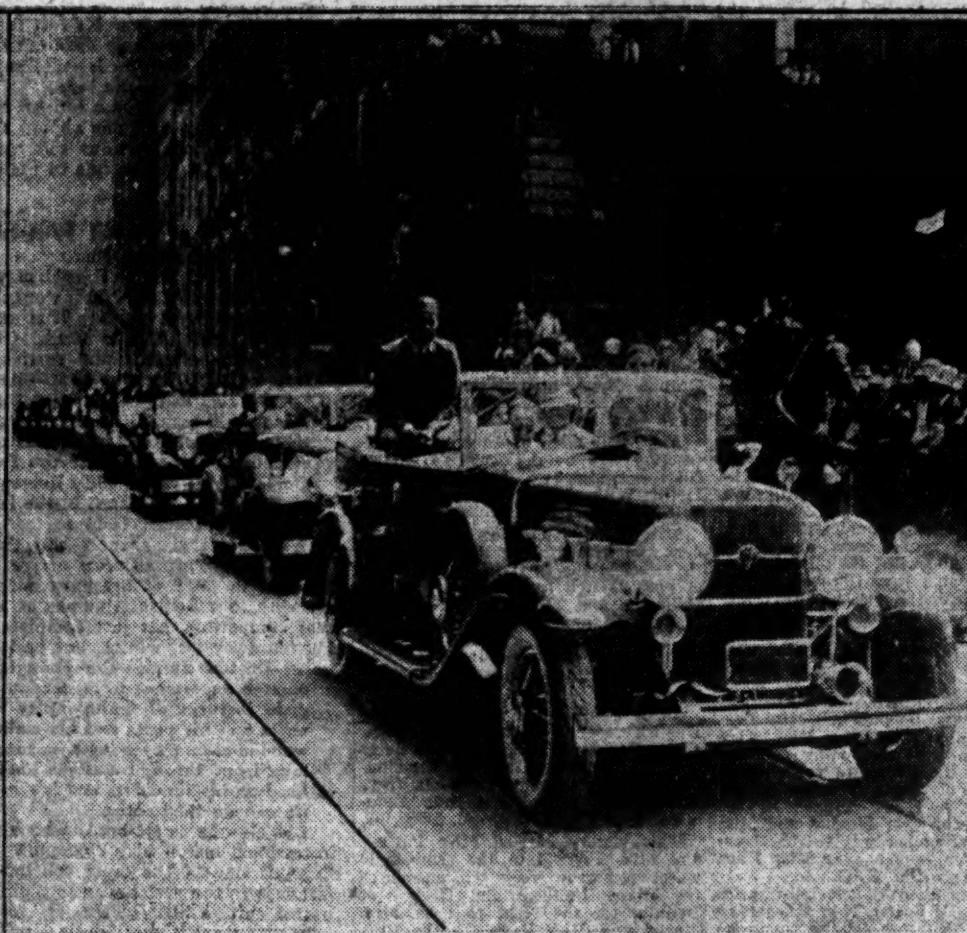

9 MILLION A DAY—IT HAD TO BE GOOD TO GET WHERE IT IS

Stribling Seeks Bout With Max Schmeling in Berlin; Crackers Bow Before Tight Hurling of Ex-Vandy Star; Golfdom's Tribute Received, Bobby Leaves for Interlachen

W. L. Departs for London---Bobby Jones Rides in Triumph in New York Reception

W. L. Stribling, Georgia heavyweight, is shown above as he left Atlanta Thursday noon for New York from whence he will sail tonight for London and a fight with Phil Scott on July 28. His mother is telling him goodbye. At the right are pictures of Bobby Jones, British open, British amateur and national open golf champion, as he was received in New York on his return from the English tournaments. In the center he is shown sitting on the back of the car as it heads a parade through the towering walls of the New York streets. The sidewalks were jammed and ticker tape rained on him through most of the journey. At the right he is shown in a close-up with Mrs. Jones. The New York reception was one of the greatest ever accorded a returning celebrity. Approximately 100 Atlantans were on hand to greet Jones. Bobby left New York Thursday for Minneapolis. He will 'test' the course Sunday.

are pictures of Bobby Jones, British open, British amateur and national open golf champion, as he was received in New York on his return from the English tournaments. In the center he is shown sitting on the back of the car as it heads a parade through the towering walls of the New York streets. The sidewalks were jammed and ticker tape rained on him through most of the journey. At the right he is shown in a close-up with Mrs. Jones. The New York reception was one of the greatest ever accorded a returning celebrity. Approximately 100 Atlantans were on hand to greet Jones. Bobby left New York Thursday for Minneapolis. He will 'test' the course Sunday.

a parade through the towering walls of the New York streets. The sidewalks were jammed and ticker tape rained on him through most of the journey. At the right he is shown in a close-up with Mrs. Jones. The New York reception was one of the greatest ever accorded a returning celebrity. Approximately 100 Atlantans were on hand to greet Jones. Bobby left New York Thursday for Minneapolis. He will 'test' the course Sunday.

of the greatest ever accorded a returning celebrity. Approximately 100 Atlantans were on hand to greet Jones. Bobby left New York Thursday for Minneapolis. He will 'test' the course Sunday.

Strib Leaves To Meet Phil Scott in London

Georgian Says His Hand Is O. K., But Cast Is Still On—"Pa" Is in New York.

By Ralph McGill.

"Look, Mary, there's W. L. Stribling. Now, Mary, don't tell me you don't know who he is."

W. L. Stribling, accompanied by "Ma" Stribling and some Atlanta friends, swung through the Terminal station Thursday on his way to New York from whence he will sail shortly after midnight tonight for London and the fight with Phil Scott.

The boy is making the heads turn now. That novacaine punch that rocked Otto Von Porat to sleep in less than one round, rocked the foundations of fistiana and started the boys and girls to looking.

W. L. Stribling has been going and coming for quite a number of years through the railroad stations in Atlanta. But never before has the public known him as they do now.

AQUATIC STARS SMASH RECORDS

LONG BEACH, Calif., July 3.—(UN)—Three world's records went into the discard here today as 10,000 spectators watched the opening day's events of the annual National A. A. U. outdoor championships at Recreation lagoon.

The greatest honors were carried away by Helene Madison, 18-year-old Seattle girl, who plunged through the water to hang up two new world marks in the 100-meter free-style dash and the mile swim for women.

In the short event, Miss Madison captured first place in 1:08.2-10 to crack the former world's record made by Eleanor Garatti, Rafael, Calif., last year at 1:09.2-10.

After resting while two other events were run off, the Seattle star came back to lead the field in the mile swim. She negotiated the course in 24:34.1-5, defeating Josephine McKim, L. A. C., who was 50 seconds behind and, at the same time, taking away Miss McKim's world mark of 24:49, made in 1928.

Buster Crabbe was the other record breaker. He made a new world mark of 21:27 in the mile race for men, bettering his own time of 21:41.3-10 made last year in San Francisco.

Corbett, Thompson Battle Tonight

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3.—(P)—Chances of the Young Corbett-Jack Thompson 10-round welterweight bout here tomorrow ending in a foul were eliminated today.

In case of a deliberate foul it was agreed the offending boxer would forfeit his purse and be suspended indefinitely.

Should the referee decide a foul was unintentional the injured contestant would be allowed to recover, even to the extent of postponing the bout. Ticket stub holders would be admitted free to the second contest.

King of Spain Loses In Yacht Classic

BERMUDAS, Isle of Wight, July 3.—(P)—King Alfonso, of Spain, today again accepted defeat when Captain Norman's yacht Cutty won the eight meter international class race in two hours 36 minutes and seven seconds with Alfonso's Hispania eighth. There were nine starters. The king himself was at the helm of the Hispania.

STIRB SEEKING BOUT IN BERLIN

'Pa' and W. L. Sail Tonight for England for Scott Battle.

By Ed Danforth.

NEW YORK, July 3.—Young Stribling and his father will be aboard the Europa at midnight Friday when they shove off for the other side. The Europa now is known as Bobby Jones' boat and the Striblings were happy to be crossing in her to preserve a part of the southern atmosphere.

The Striblings are sailing for England and they may not be back for four months. That was the word from "Pa" late today after he had bounced around Times Square as fast as his short legs could carry him for fully three hours.

SEEKS BERLIN BOUT.

In addition to the immediate object of the expedition—a bout with Phil Scott, July 28, in London—"Pa" began angling for a match in Berlin with Herr Max Schmeling, the synthetic champion of the world. It is not improbable that he will land it. If the scrap came off in September it would not astonish some folks along Cauliflower row.

Schmeling has gone home and Joe Jacobs, his American manager, has talked himself out of the Madison Square Garden office and a return bout with Jack Sharkey. That is exactly what Jacobs wanted to do, some say.

But it is also a known fact that both Schmeling and Jacobs think they can make plenty of money in Berlin fighting Stribling. What is stranger is that Schmeling and Jacobs think Max could outbustle Stribling to a decision if the match were staged in Berlin.

STIRB'S CHANCE.

That is the status of Stribling's chance to get a crack at Schmeling soon. It is still one of those things floating around in the thick air of dingy corridors in the Roaring Forties where boxing people have their offices. Something may come of it and again something may not.

"Pa" got in ahead of W. L. to play politics along Cauliflower row. W. L. arrives Friday at noon and they sail at midnight. They probably will be home early in August and then again they might not get back until October.

Sir Thomas Lipton Scores Third Victory

GOULROCK, Scotland, July 3.—(P)—Sir Thomas Lipton's latest America's cup challenger, the Shamrock V, scored its third victory on the Clyde today and again proved itself an outstanding performer in light airs.

The result of today's race was decided on the first round, after which the race was stopped.

The times for today's event were: Shamrock 3:55.10; White Heather 3:57.50; Lulworth 4:02.47. The Cambria was becalmed and gave up. The race normally is over a 57-mile course. The Lipton yacht outdistanced Lulworth and the others with a clear lead from the first tack.

Pullman Hurricane Meets Greys Today

Atlanta Grey Sox and the Pullman Hurricane baseball teams will play a double-header this afternoon on the Morehouse diamond. The Hurricane has not been defeated this season and the Grey Sox are reported to have one of the best colored teams in the city.

NEW YORK, July 3.—In recent months, I had sort of become reconciled to radio announcers. There seemed to be a general improvement in technique and in knowledge of the subject in hand among those announcers who were broadcasting sporting events. And the general run of program announcers seemed on the verge of submerging their bursting personality no matter how it hurt in the interest of delivering information to their listeners.

But I am definitely off them from here on in. I am right back where I started. The work of years of self-discipline, of trying to see good in everything, even on the air, has been undone.

It all happened on the S. S. Macom while we were rolling about on the Atlantic swells preparing to nudge up to the Europa and take Bobby Jones away to Broadway for his welcome.

TELLING THE WORLD.

The announcer who was telling the world about it from the deck of the Macom was a small, chunky man with a pale blue eye. He wore no hat. The wind made his curls flutter. He wore a brown sports coat, brown striped flannel trousers and white buckskin shoes. The shoes had been whitened for the occasion and were sort of smeared with powder.

Our announcer took off on the air shortly after the Europa was sighted. He betook himself to a part of the deck where crowds were not congregated. To the mike was attached a very long wire so he could move freely. He handled the instrument as if it had been a mirror. Now and then he smiled into it as he talked.

Our announcer moved about the decks as he talked. Often he seated himself on the rail, one leg hooked under to steady himself. It was a precarious position but then—well I do not know why he did it.

Finally the Jones party came on board and our announcer, this time perched dizzily on the bridge rail, was going great. I happened to be standing near. He noticed me.

Leaning down gracefully, at risk of losing his perch, he asked pleasantly, "You are Mrs. Jones' father, aren't you? Won't you say a word for us."

ANNOUNCER NEAR WATERY GRAVE.

Now Mr. John Malone is a fine looking man of about 50 with iron grey hair and a moustache. He could double for the financier in a movie.

But at the moment I was feeling brisk and not a day over 37—well, 38 then—and figured I looked the part. So I was incensed. But I could think of nothing to say.

And if the announcer's mother, a vigorous, determined matron, had not been standing at hand listening to her son's broadcast I might have thought of something to do.

There was only about 20 feet of salt air between him and salt water, you see, and he was balanced very precariously on the rail. He never will know how precariously, either.

NOT THE ONLY ONE.

This orgy of personal reminiscences will do me for two or three months. I have the satisfaction of not being alone in being mistaken for people as the Bobby Jones parade wound up through Broadway. Chick Ridley was pointed out repeatedly as Bobby Jones and Al Doonan as Bobby's father.

THE EAST SIDE COMMENTS.

And one crack from a bystander no doubt won't have given Bobby himself a laugh. It was down at the Battery where the parade was forming. One young East Sider, whose dialect I cannot commit to the

Continued on Second Sport Page.

CRACKERS LOSE TO BEARS, 5-3

Kitty Creson, Former Vanderbilt Star, Allows But Four Hits.

By Herb Clark.

Larry, called "Kitty" Creson, who has won his hit on diamond and gridiron for dear old Vandy, did his bit on the diamond for poor old Mobile Thursday afternoon. Did, in fact, a hit which was almost to be classed as impossible.

Larry, called "Kitty" Creson pitched Mobile's lowly Bears to a 5-3 victory over Atlanta's own Crackers, who, it seems, are not to reach that desired .500 percentage yet awhile. They got but four hits off the former Commodore.

Six times have those Crackers climbed, with those Bears doing little to hinder. Then, just as desires were within aching grasp, a flapping sleeve waved them away.

Larry, called "Kitty" made his debut in the Southern league by beating the Crackers. He may have been new, but the undercurrent he wore was not. And it may have been that tattered bit of sleeve, waving and awing in the breeze as Larry flung now and the inspection of the most pessimistic has yet to find any flaw in him.

It was some relief to at least one correspondent from the home town to see that New York considered the downtown demonstration of unusual enthusiasm. I thought it was a wow. But then, having no great experience in New York orations, I had no accurate basis of comparison. My testimony was inexperienced. The unanimous opinion was that it was the wildest show of genuine admiration ever shown a returning hero, although staged at a time when employees in the financial district were at their desks and the street crowd at the lowest ebb of the day. Atlantans who made the trip here can be certain they saw New York turn over the keys to the city gates in its very best form.

Bobby does not plan to stop in Chicago to play golf, but will take out his clubs at Interlachen for the first time since leaving England.

TOLLEY IS ALONG.

His hurry to reach the scene may be due to the fact that Cyril Tolley, that delightful Englishman and former amateur champion, is along. Bobby naturally wants to see that the visitor has a change to experiment for several days with the twists and turns of Interlachen before the best test next Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Jones are along with their son, Mrs. Bobby Jones has left for Atlanta to join her children. She was in no mood for further tournament following, she said.

Bobby looked a bit frayed from the strenuous pushing and shoving he received in New York and the intense excitement of those second night. It was with some relief that he boarded a flier for Chicago and could sit down in peace with his mother and father once more.

From all that could be gathered, Bobby has not yet begun to speculate over or to weigh the problem of the national open golf championship. In other words, his chances are just as good as ever of adding the third championship to his string.

PLAYING THE GAME.

In the backhand drive the footwork is exactly reversed, the back foot being behind the left and front foot the right. The swing is from well behind the forehead.

TWO HOME RUNS.

With Yeagrin on base, McSwain, Continued on Second Sport Page.

Bob, Gotham's Hero, Off for Interlachen

Gotham Papers Praise Atlantian; America's Ideal, Says Dan Parker.

By Ed Danforth.

NEW YORK, July 3.—Bobby Jones left here today for Minneapolis and the United States open championship after the most complete conquest of the metropolis Bobby ever has made. In the past New York has been cool at times towards him absolutely. But now it is his.

Not only was the public demonstration a most enthusiastic sounding of "welcome home," but the editorial reflections in the press next day were most extravagant and even affectionate. Not a discordant note was sounded. From the brief pean of praise of Dan Parker in one of the tabloids, who said "Give us more Joneses in sport," and characterized Bobby as the ideal of the young and the inspiration of the old, to the graceful compliments bestowed by Westbrook Pegler, the press of New York simply raved about the Atlantian.

A section from Pegler's article is a fair sample of how the metropolitan critics looked on Bobby and the reception given him: "The spontaneity and joy that had been absent from some of the determinedly enthusiastic receptions of the last few years were in the air again. It just seemed that the lower town had suddenly recognized Bobby as the American ideal in sportsmanship and was sitting up to answer the description in all particulars. Bobby Jones has been up winning championships for years now and the inspection of the most pessimistic has yet to find any flaw in him."

Today's program will consist of 50 single targets, 12 pair of doubles and 50 whiz targets, with trophies for each squad of six shooters.

It will be the last event in which members of the Peachtree Gun Club will have to practice before the big southern divisional handicap next week at the Atlanta Gun Club traps. The regular Saturday afternoon program scheduled for July 5 has been postponed.

Atlanta Club Members Idle.

Members of the Atlanta Gun Club will not hold a shoot this afternoon but will stage a practice event of 100 single targets Saturday afternoon. A practice shoot was held Wednesday afternoon and a large number of the members will be out of the city today.

Horton Smith Sets Record in Match

WINCHESTER, Mass., July 3.—(P)—Horton Smith set up a new record for the rugged Winchester County Club course here today, shooting a 69 in a four-ball exhibition match with Leo Diegel, his Ryder cup teammate, against Francis Ouimet, of Brookline, and George Voigt, New York, members of the victorious American Walker cup team.

A gallery of 2,000 watched the professionals defeat the amateurs by a 2-and-1 margin.

Quimet had a par round of 72. Diegel shot a 74 and Voigt a 76. Smith's performance shattered the old mark of 70 set several years ago by Clark Hodder, of Braintree, the former hockey player.

Prince of Wales May Attend Meet

CHICAGO, July 3.—(P)—The Prince of Wales may be an interested spectator at the British-American track and field meet at Soldier Field, August 27.

Hearing the prince expected to attend the British qualifying events at Hamilton, Ontario, August 23, officials in charge of the Chicago meet cabled Ambassador Charles G. Dawes to invite him here.

GOLFING ARMY OF CITY READY FOR BIG FOURTH

VISITORS WILL INSPIRE FOURTH OF JULY PARTIES

Many From Other Cities
Join in Celebrating Day

The presence in the city of attractive visitors will be the inspiration of many entertainments of the glorious Fourth. Miss Donna Carter Dulany, of Baltimore, Md., the guest of Miss Nancy Simpson at her home on Peachtree road, will be central figure at a number of the social gatherings of the day. Mrs. Ludwig Seidemann, of Warsaw, Poland, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bernard Scott, is a distinguished visitor in the city. Mrs. Colquhoun Cole, of Birmingham, Ala., the attractive guest of Mrs. L. C. McKinney at her home on Peachtree road, augments the group of those who have chosen the Gate City in which to spend the Fourth. Miss Jane Morrison, sub-deb daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alston D. Morrison, of Charlotte, N. C., is being entertained in Atlanta as the guest of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Whitner. Miss Morrison is a popular member of the younger social set of Charlotte, and will be among the North Carolina girls attending Sweet Briar college in Virginia next fall. Mrs. Henry Watkins and Henry Watkins, Jr., of New York city, and Miss Muriel Vincent, of Philadelphia, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. William C. Wardlaw at their summer home near Roswell. Mrs. Ralph Davidson, of Montreal, Canada, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Charles Atkinson. Miss Alice Mitchell, of Yakima, Wash., the guest of Miss Ethel North, coplanes, will be at a number of parties. Mrs. Thomas D. Chantler, of Pittsburgh, Pa., is the guest of her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Robinson, at their home, 1343 Peachtree road.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wright, Jr., of Monroe, who have returned from St. Simons Island, are the guests for several days of Mrs. Wright's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Williams, at their home on Lombardy way. Mrs. Wright was before her marriage Miss Jean Williams. Mrs. E. H. Martin, of Hot Springs, Ark., is visiting her niece, Mrs. Henry Jackson, at her home on Peachtree road. Mrs. N. K. Ball, of Chicago, the guest of Mrs. W. E. Floding at her home on Myrtle street, is among the interesting group of visitors who are to be honored at interesting parties throughout the city today.

Among the sub-deb's being feted at parties is Miss Laura Edmonds, of Portland, Ore., who is the guest of her cousin, Miss Laura McGinty, on Juniper street.

Misses Johnson
Honor B. Y. P. U.

Misses Ida and Alice Johnson entertained the B-Y. P. U. of the Second Baptist church with a kid party at their home last Saturday evening. Those present were Misses Pauline Candler, Pearl Clifford, Grace Sanders, Eloise Medall, Annie Lee Lancaster, Willie Mae Lee, Alice Johnson, Ruth Kimsey, Eva Lancaster, Ida Johnson, Julia Briggs, Guyton Lancaster, and Raymond Lewis, Ross Bartlett, T. W. Stephens, Paul Bartlett, Lester Hodge, Leon Perkins, Vernon Saggus, Charles Claxton, Roy Adams, Wallace Houghton and Floyd McWhorter. Mrs. S. C. Johnson assisted in entertaining the guests.

Misses Orr and Aunt
To Visit New York.

Mrs. W. C. Adamson, accompanied by her two nieces, Miss Eleanor Orr and Miss Dora Orr, will leave for New York city, where they will spend the summer. Miss Eleanor Orr is a graduate of Shorter college, Rome, and while studying in Atlanta she has been director of dramatics in the Newnan high school for the past year, also teaching a class in expression. Miss Dora Orr, the younger sister, goes to New York to study drama at the American Academy of Dramatic Arts, Carnegie Hall, New York. Miss Dora Orr, the younger sister, goes to New York to study drama at the American Academy of Dramatic Arts, Carnegie Hall, New York. Miss Dora Orr, the younger sister, goes to New York to study drama at the American Academy of Dramatic Arts, Carnegie Hall, New York.

The Misses Smith
Are Honor Guests.

ST. SIMONS ISLAND, Ga., July 3. A buffet supper was given last Saturday at Sea Haven, St. Simons Island, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pringle, of Atlanta, by Miss Jones and Bob Pringle, in honor of Misses Marion and Lucia Smith, of Atlanta, the occasion celebrating their birthday. The guests included Mesdames Willis Jones, Robert Pringle, Grady Pearson, Ronald Ransom, Arthur Tufts and P. G. Heter, Misses Marion Smith, Lucia Smith, Susan Hippi, Margaret McCarty, Julie McClatchey, Betty McDuffie, Helen Parker, Julianne Pringle, Barbara Ransom, Louise Robert, Laura Troutman, Laura Whitner and Kathryn Fry, of Philadelphia; J. P. Allen, George Black, Ralph Black, Charlie Mullins, Bob Chambers, Charles Daniels, Freddie Fry, of Philadelphia; Bill Fuller, Tom Fuller, John Holman, Willis Jones, Phil McDuffie, Charles Mullins, Bob Pringle, Leonard Richardson, Charlie Robert, J. L. Riley, O. J. Sala, Bill Stern, Arthur Tufts, John Tufts, Rodge Tufts, James Kennan, Wesley Martin, Tal Graham and Robert Van Houten.

Nellie Dodd Circle
Is Entertained.

Mrs. B. B. Gilliam entertained the members of Circle No. 2, of the St. Nellie Dodd circle, at her home on Washington street Tuesday morning. Members present were Mesdames D. W. Milam, Bessie Smith, J. O. Morris, Tom Lyons, Bessie Vining, J. L. Davis, F. C. Smith, J. C. Vining, A. S. Stallings, H. W. Lay, B. B. Gilliam. The next meeting will be with Mrs. D. W. Milam.

PLA TO ATTEND
MUSE'S
5TH FLOOR
JULY CLEARANCE
OF ALL
SPRING AND SUMMER
LADIES' READY-TO-WEAR
Beginning Monday
SEE DETAILS IN SUNDAY'S PAPERS
GEORGE MUSE CLOTHING CO.
Peachtree, Walton and Broad

Ladies' Ready-to-Wear
Dept. Closed Friday and Saturday

Miss Murphy Weds
Steve H. Bomar
At Home Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Reba Murphy to Steve H. Bomar, of Douglasville and Atlanta, took place yesterday afternoon at the bride's home on Fairhaven circle, the Rev. Thomas McGaughey, of College Park, officiating.

Before and during the ceremony a musical program was given by Miss Mary Murphy and Joseph Murphy. Palms, ferns and gladioli were used throughout the home. An improvised altar of palms was arranged in the living room, before which stood pedestals filled with white gladioli and seven-branched candelabra with white burning tapers.

Mrs. Rushin Fets
Daughter at Party.

Mrs. Jack J. Rushin entertained at a children's party yesterday at her home in Garden Hills celebrating the third birthday anniversary of her daughter, Jane Gray. Little Misses Maurine Coley and Betty Reams entertained the children with several dances, and other features of the afternoon were a "Toy Store" and "balloon parade." Little Miss Rushin wore a hand-made frock of light chiffon over pink satin with sprays of tiny pink and blue ribbons.

The invited guests included Barbara Brown, Eloise Rushin, Patsy Jones, Belle Miller, Ann Johnson, Margaret Brown, Ann Brown, Kathryn Harwell, Dorothy Belle Barge, Lucile Wrigley, Virginia Padgett, Maurine Coley, Caroline Hodges, Betty Reams, Alma Murphy, Patricia White, Royall Moore, O. W. Brock, J. T. Conrad, Fulton, Larkin Parrish, Dudley Meier, Thomas Johnson, Ben Kyle, Jack Murphy, Delos White, Jr., J. E. White, Robert Innell, John Robert, Junior, Fox, John Way, Meadames S. N. Rushin, M. F. Brown, R. E. Brown, C. Manley Brown, C. E. Rushin, Patrick Jones, J. L. Senn, Miss Ann Senn, of Birmingham, and others.

Many Visit
In Avondale.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wall and sons, Kurt and Bobbie, have returned home after a two weeks' visit in Hammond, Ind., and Oak Park, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sommer are spending several weeks in Washington, D. C.

Dr. and Mrs. I. T. Catron have returned from a trip of two weeks in Kentucky and Tennessee.

Mrs. Edward Macon has as her guest, Mrs. J. T. Ingram, of Marietta. Little Walton Crawford, of Marietta, is the guest of Randolph M. Norman, Jr., of Columbus, are visiting friends in Avondale. They were former residents of Avondale.

Dick Heaton is at Camp Cherokee where he will remain for two months. Mrs. H. G. Foote and son, Ward, have returned from a visit to Cleveland, Ohio.

Miss Elizabeth Evans entertained two tables of bridge recently in honor of Miss Violet Colchfield, of Marietta, who has been her guest for the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Heaton, of Atlanta, are spending the summer at a motor trip through northern New York and the Canadian border. They will be away a month.

Miss Daisy Allen, of Rome, is visiting Mrs. J. L. Bond.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. McConaghey and little sons will leave Friday for a motor trip to Toronto, Canada, and Wausau Beach, Ontario. Mr. McConaghey will return the latter part of July. Mrs. McConaghey and sons will remain until September.

The Saturday evening bridge party was held in the Avondale Club Saturday evening. Mrs. C. E. Talbot was hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Randolph and family left recently for a motor trip to New Jersey.

Thomas Simpson has returned from Hot Springs, Ark.

Miss Helen Simpson is attending art school at Provincetown, N. J.

Mrs. J. E. Armstrong
Entertains Mother.

Mrs. J. E. Armstrong entertained Sunday at her home on Bryan street in celebration of the 80th birthday of her mother, Mrs. James D. Williams, widow of the late James D. Williams, of Lawrenceville. Mrs. Armstrong was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. T. N. Abernathy. Those present were Mrs. James D. Williams, Mrs. and Mrs. Emma, Mrs. and Mrs. Marion Williams, Miss Frances Williams, Marion Williams, Jr., C. Monroe, George L. Williams, of Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. John J. Brock, Miss Carolyn Brock, Miss Dorothy Brock, of Vidalia; Dr. and Mrs. A. D. Williams, Miss Louise Williams, Miss Annette Williams, of Lawrenceville; Miss Ellen Williams, of Athens; Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Williams, Miss Elizabeth Williams, Miss Kathryn Williams, Mrs. T. N. Abernathy, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Jenkins, Charles Jenkins, Pliny A. Williams and Robert Williams.

Vanoy Club
Gives Dance.

The officers of Club Vanoy will entertain members of Vanoy and their friends at an informal social dance Saturday evening, July 5, at Peachtree Gardens. Chaperons will be Mr. and Mrs. George A. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ponder, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Denton, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Hansen.

Beautiful Augusta Visitor

Mrs. Howard Fortson, of Augusta, Ga., who is visiting her mother, Mrs. Burgess Eckford, on Peachtree circle, having motored to Atlanta to spend the Fourth of July and to attend the birthday dinner given in celebration of Mrs. Eckford. She was formerly Miss Florence Eckford and is one of the most beautiful young women in the state.

SOCIAL ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Casper Johnson, Miss Eleanor Johnson and her guest, Miss Mary Guy Brooke, of New York city, are spending the week-end at Lakewood, Ga.

Mrs. Frank Fair has returned from Augusta, where she attended the Fair-Bond wedding Saturday.

Mrs. Ethel Cox, who is visiting in Marion, S. C., was the house guest at a bridge party given recently by Misses Katie and Cattie Williams.

Miss Rosie Randolph is visiting friends at Etowah, Tenn.

John Dabney, Jr., young son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dabney, is in New York city, the guest of his uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. Roy L. Blackmon.

Mrs. T. A. Boykin and children, of Shandon, S. C., are visiting relatives in Atlanta.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Dean and children, Dorothy and Ewing, are guests at the Atlantic Beach hotel in Florida.

Mrs. Milton Davenport and little son have returned from Abbeville, where they have been spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Drew.

Misses Lillian Alice Cannon and Lucia Baker are guests of the former's aunt, Mrs. C. H. Able, in Norway, S. C.

J. W. Hatley is visiting his nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Dyche, in Philadelphia, Tenn.

Mrs. Lula Toole has returned from Smithville, where she was the guest of her brother, J. W. McDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sampson have returned from Gaffney, S. C., where they were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will McComb.

Mrs. J. M. Blunt is visiting her sisters, Mrs. Joseph Bignon and Mrs. M. B. Davis, in Augusta.

Miss Ruth Smith will leave shortly for Asheville, N. C., where she will be a bridesmaid in the wedding of Miss Edna McCubbin and George Cushman, which takes place July 9.

Miss Martha Sue Thompson, who is visiting in Macon, was the honor guest at a picnic Friday evening given by her aunt, Mrs. B. T. Bethune.

Mrs. John Durst and children, Miss Winona Durst and Tyler Durst, are spending two weeks with relatives in Greenwood, S. C.

Mrs. F. O. Smith has returned to her home in Arlington after a visit with her son, Floyd Smith.

Mrs. J. B. Wynn, who is visiting in Spartanburg, S. C., has the honor guest at a party given recently by Mrs. H. G. Russell.

Misses Georgia and Rilla Finney and J. W. and V. C. Finney are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Finney, in Gordon, for the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Garland McCarty, Miss Elizabeth McCarty and Garland, Jr., have returned from Gray, where they spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Greene.

Mrs. John Middlebrooks has as her guest her sister, Miss Fletcher Turner, of Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Herman Martin are on their wedding trip and will return at an early date to take up residence in Atlanta. Their marriage took place in June in Friends-ship, Md. Mrs. Martin having been Miss Billa Elizabeth Leitch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pierson Leitch, of Friends-ship, Md. They toured New England before going to Canada, and also enjoyed a cruise on the Great Lakes.

Mrs. Anne Bates Walsh and her daughters, Elizabeth Winship Walsh and Emily Frances Walsh, spent the month of June as guests of Miss Helen Jackson at her lodge on Lake Erie at the exclusive Lorraine colony, Port Colborne, Ontario, Canada.

Miss Carrie Allen Alexander, who has been attending school in Savannah, is at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Alexander.

Richard Clark is home from Harvard.

Miss McKinney
And Mr. Hill Wed
In Decatur, Ga.

DECATUR, Ga., July 3.—The marriage of Miss Caroline Murphy McKinney, daughter of Mrs. Samuel Branch McKinney, of Decatur, to Forrest Hill, of Decatur, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Hill, of Fort Myers, Fla., was solemnized last evening at the home of the bride's parents, 146 South Candler street. Dr. D. P. McGeehy, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Decatur, performed the ceremony in the presence of the families of the bride and groom. Miss Mary Sawyer, of Decatur, was the only attendant.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill will make their home temporarily with the bride's mother, Mrs. Samuel Branch McKinney, 146 South Candler street.

Bowen-Plaxico.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Moss announce the marriage of their daughter, Evelyn Louise Bowen, to Henry Erskine Plaxico Saturday, June 7.

Dr. C. B. Williams performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate family of the bride and groom.

The bride's only attendant was Miss Eleanor Plaxico, sister of the groom. The best man was Eugene Morrow.

After the ceremony the bride and groom left for a motor trip. Upon their return they will be at home at 1125 Rosedale drive.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCain, of Searcy, Ark., are located in Atlanta for the summer at 857 Ponce de Leon avenue.

Dr. C. Smith Phillips, of Washington, D. C., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford L. Near, at their home on Juniper street. Mrs. Phillips was formerly Miss Arcadia Near, of Atlanta.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack J. Rushin and little daughter, Jane Gray Rushin, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Sydney A. Rushin, left today for Fairland Inn, Chattanooga, Tenn.

Miss Lavinia Greenblatt is in New York city, where she is maid of honor at the marriage of Miss Marjorie A. Bloom and Milton A. Schwartz, which took place last Tuesday evening in the ballroom of the Hotel Astor.

Mr. and Mrs. John Russell, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Dunn, Mrs. Frank Davis, Mrs. Jessie N. Rowland, Miss Marie Rowland, Joe Dekle and Theodore Plaxico formed a congenial party motoring to Lake Burton to spend the week-end.

Mrs. A. B. Brown and daughter, Clara Gloria, are spending the week-end at Tybee.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Martin, of Birmingham, Ala., former residents of Atlanta, are spending the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Martin, at their home on North Ivey road.

Miss Margaret Nelson has returned from a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cluett at their home in New York city.

Miss Virginia Squibb, of Cincinnati, Ohio, arrived in Atlanta yesterday to visit Miss Sue Burnett, at her home on Peachtree road.

Mrs. Truman Tillis, of Lakeland, Fla., and Mrs. Ida Abraham, of New York city, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Tillis, at their home in Brookhaven.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Collins and children leave today for their home in Charlotte, N. C., after a month's visit with Mrs. Catherine Collins on Linden avenue, N. E.

Dr. and Mrs. Roger W. Dickson will motor to Fitzgerald for the week-end to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Dickson at their country home.

Mr. and Mrs. Middleton Brawner Floyd announce the birth of twin daughters June 22 at Davis-Fisher sanitarium. They have been given the names Lorna Suzanne and Sarah Luverne.

Among the recent arrivals at the Atlanta Biltmore hotel are Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Outlaw, of New York, who are in New York, where they were the welcome party to Bobby Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Whitehead and little son, Billy Burton, are visiting their aunt, Mrs. H. B. Clark, in Catalina.

C. A. Baldwin is spending the week in Talbotton.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thomas have returned from Sparta, where they were the guests of Judge and Mrs. H. H. Lewis.

Ernest F. Fleming, Jr., has returned from Macon, where he attended his brother as groomsmen in the Conely-Fleming wedding Friday evening.

Lewis Dinkins has returned from Augusta, where he was the guest of his mother, Mrs. Mattie Dinkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Fulghum have returned from Sparta, where they were the guests of their parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Fulghum.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Sams have returned from a visit to Sea Island Beach, Ga., where they spent two weeks at the Hotel Cloister. They also visited their brother, Bruce Sams, in Savannah.

Dr. and Mrs. Hubert Rawiser, their sons, Paul and Harry Rawiser, and Miss Ruth Crowley leave Thursday for a week-end trip to Clayton.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham Dozier, Jr., leave Friday for Rome, where they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Smith for the week-end.

Miss Alma King and Miss Katherine King left Wednesday for Savannah and Tybee Beach, where they will be guests at the Tybee hotel.

Miss Emily Malone and Miss Linda Jernigan left yesterday for St. Simons Island, where they will be the guests of Mrs. Millard Reese, going afterward to Atlantic Beach, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Smith are in Milford, Del.

Mrs. W. A. Upchurch and Miss Frances Upchurch are in New York.

Miss Carrie Allen Alexander, who has been attending school in Savannah, is at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Alexander.

Richard Clark is home from Harvard.

Dr. R. F. Thomas has returned from a short visit to Sparta.

Dinner-Dance at Brookhaven
Ushers in Independence Day

The annual Independence dinner and dance was held last evening at Brookhaven, the Capital City Country Club, and ushered in the Fourth of July festivities. This brilliant affair was featured by decorations symbolic of the day. Patriotic bunting draped the walls and tables, and favors were wrapped in red, white and blue tissue. Flags centered the tables and shields of the states held mints and nuts. Whistles, horns and other noisemakers were passed and attested the arrival of another grand and glorious Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Perkerson entertained in compliment to Mrs. Henry Watkins, of New York city, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Wardlaw, the party being completed by Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Parker.

With Mrs. and Mr. William C. Wardlaw III were hosts at a party in honor of Miss Muriel Vincent, of Philadelphia, Pa., and their guests included Miss Clara Cole, of Newnan; Henry Watkins, Jr., of New York city; and Mrs. W. H. Arnold, of Charlotte, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Williams entertained a number of guests in compliment to Muriel Harris, of New York city. Dining together were Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Godley and Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Albritton.

Guests of H. H. Jarrett were Miss Kingsley Black, of New Orleans, La.; Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Woodward, Mr. Henry Clay Burr, Rufus Lang and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kays, Jr.

With Mrs. and Mr. J. K. Perry were Dr. and Mrs. Robert Ingram, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chalmers, John T. Toler and Sid Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis H. Sams, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Burke, Miss Littel Funkhouser and Ed Hardin.

With Mrs. and Mrs. Morgan Wynne were Mr. and Mrs. Myron Sanberaux and Paul Bouquies.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Frederick, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Brooks were together.

Among others entertaining were Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Ottley, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Burnett, J. R. Wright, L. C. McKinney, J. E. Colley, F. O. Wynn, R. E. Govan and Inman Brandon.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Eldon and F. W. Blacklock dined together. Other congenial party included Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Dives, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Craft, Miss Zella Springer and George Craft.

With Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Anderson were Mr. and Mrs. Dean Paden and others, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Tomlinson, Mr. and Mrs. John Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. Cary Chapman and Mr. and Mrs. John Westmoreland dined together.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Shoemaker and Mr. and Mrs. C. Kave formed a party and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Porter and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Joseph were together. Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Darby, Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Shepherd and Duncan Shepard were among those dining at the club.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Atkins, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Tompkins, Dr. and Mrs. John Duncan, Robert Strickland and Thomas Tift were together.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bernard Scott entertained in honor of their guest, Mrs. Ludwig Szolcman, of Warsaw, Poland, formerly Miss Edith Angier, of Atlanta. Covers were laid for Mrs. Szolcman, Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Brown, F. M. Mikell and Mr. and Mrs. Scott.

Dr. and Mrs. N. N. Owensby entertained Dr. and Mrs. Patrick H. Jones.

The bride's sister, Mrs. J. Rose, was matron of honor, and Mrs. R. Durham, N. C., the bride's brother-in-law, acted as best man. The bridegroom was accompanied to the altar by his mother and father.

The bride wore a beautiful green chiffon model with the skirt almost touching the floor, offset with a large picture hat of matching shade. She carried a bride bouquet of roses showered with lilies of the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Jacobs, parents of the bride, served dinner for the wedding party and close friends after the ceremony. The couple left by motor for New York City. They will also stop in the Buckkill mountains of Pennsylvania.

Guests of the wedding party included Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Rose, of Durham, N. C.; Miss Rutledge Shattuck, of New York city; Nathan Mussaf, M. Miller, of Paterson, N. J.; Miss Etta Coplan, of Opelika, Ala.; Mrs. Ben Ryder, of West Palm Beach, Fla.; Miss Janie Landau, of Elberton, Ga.

The out-of-town guests were Mrs. Ben Rose, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Rose, of Durham, N. C.; Miss Rutledge Shattuck, of New York city; Nathan Mussaf, M. Miller, of Paterson, N. J.; Miss Etta Coplan, of Opelika, Ala.; Mrs. Ben Ryder, of West Palm Beach, Fla.; Miss Janie Landau, of Elberton, Ga.

G. Hastings, president Service Star Legion; Mrs. J. Stanley Moore, president Spanish War Veterans Auxiliary. The address will be given by Colonel John A. Shiley, attorney-at-law, who is an orator of note. Mrs. Reynolds will sing "Columbia, Gem of the Ocean," and the audience will be dismissed by Rev. Boggs.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanley Moore, president Spanish War Veterans Auxiliary. The address will be given by Colonel John A. Shiley, attorney-at-law, who is an orator of note. Mrs. Reynolds will sing "Columbia, Gem of the Ocean," and the audience will be dismissed by Rev. Boggs.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanley Moore, president Spanish War Veterans Auxiliary. The address will be given by Colonel John A. Shiley, attorney-at-law, who is an orator of note. Mrs. Reynolds will sing "Columbia, Gem of the Ocean," and the audience will be dismissed by Rev. Boggs.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanley Moore, president Spanish War Veterans Auxiliary. The address will be given by Colonel John A. Shiley, attorney-at-law, who is an orator of note. Mrs. Reynolds will sing "Columbia, Gem of the Ocean," and the audience will be dismissed by Rev. Boggs.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanley Moore, president Spanish War Veterans Auxiliary. The address will be given by Colonel John A. Shiley, attorney-at-law, who is an orator of note. Mrs. Reynolds will sing "Columbia, Gem of the Ocean," and the audience will be dismissed by Rev. Boggs.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanley Moore, president Spanish War Veterans Auxiliary. The address will be given by Colonel John A. Shiley, attorney-at-law, who is an orator of note. Mrs. Reynolds will sing "Columbia, Gem of the Ocean," and the audience will be dismissed by Rev. Boggs.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanley Moore, president Spanish War Veterans Auxiliary. The address will be given by Colonel John A. Shiley, attorney-at-law, who is an orator of note. Mrs. Reynolds will sing "Columbia, Gem of the Ocean," and the audience will be dismissed by Rev. Boggs.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanley Moore, president Spanish War Veterans Auxiliary. The address will be given by Colonel John A. Shiley, attorney-at-law, who is an orator of note. Mrs. Reynolds will sing "Columbia, Gem of the Ocean," and the audience will be dismissed by Rev. Boggs.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanley Moore, president Spanish War Veterans Auxiliary. The address will be given by Colonel John A. Shiley, attorney-at-law, who is an orator of note. Mrs. Reynolds will sing "Columbia, Gem of the Ocean," and the audience will be dismissed by Rev. Boggs.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanley Moore, president Spanish War Veterans Auxiliary. The address will be given by Colonel John A. Shiley, attorney-at-law, who is an orator of note. Mrs. Reynolds will sing "Columbia, Gem of the Ocean," and the audience will be dismissed by Rev. Boggs.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanley Moore, president Spanish War Veterans Auxiliary. The address will be given by Colonel John A. Shiley, attorney-at-law, who is an orator of note. Mrs. Reynolds will sing "Columbia, Gem of the Ocean," and the audience will be dismissed by Rev. Boggs.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanley Moore, president Spanish War Veterans Auxiliary. The address will be given by Colonel John A. Shiley, attorney-at-law, who is an orator of note. Mrs. Reynolds will sing "Columbia, Gem of the Ocean," and the audience will be dismissed by Rev. Boggs.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanley Moore, president Spanish War Veterans Auxiliary. The address will be given by Colonel John A. Shiley, attorney-at-law, who is an orator of note. Mrs. Reynolds will sing "Columbia, Gem of the Ocean," and the audience will be dismissed by Rev. Boggs.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanley Moore, president Spanish War Veterans Auxiliary. The address will be given by Colonel John A. Shiley, attorney-at-law, who is an orator of note. Mrs. Reynolds will sing "Columbia, Gem of the Ocean," and the audience will be dismissed by Rev. Boggs.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanley Moore, president Spanish War Veterans Auxiliary. The address will be given by Colonel John A. Shiley, attorney-at-law, who is an orator of note. Mrs. Reynolds will sing "Columbia, Gem of the Ocean," and the audience will be dismissed by Rev. Boggs.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanley Moore, president Spanish War Veterans Auxiliary. The address will be given by Colonel John A. Shiley, attorney-at-law, who is an orator of note. Mrs. Reynolds will sing "Columbia, Gem of the Ocean," and the audience will be dismissed by Rev. Boggs.

Mr. and Mrs.

